Dear Dr. Umar Azam,

Assalamu Alaikum,

I would like to request a copy of the Quran (and any suitable books) to the below address, to be given to a Buddhist who is interested in learning Islam.

OUR MUSLIM ORGANISATIONS REQUIRE SUCH FULL DETAILS BEFORE THEY WILL SHIP OUT FREE HOLY QURAN AND ALSO ISLAMIC BOOKS (WHICH HE CAN ALSO HAVE). DR UMAR

Jun 29

Ahamed Nuzhan <ahamednuzhan@gmail.com>

to me

Assalamu Alaikum Dr Umar,

This is for a female law student. If shipped directly to her address, she may run into trouble. When asked if she would like to learn she was positive (right now her knowledge of Islam is limited). I am not sure how she would take it if approached directly by an organization (such as by phone etc) and that is why I have given my address. FYI, I have ordered books from CIMS before (for me).

Further, there is a massive hate campaign going on against muslims in Sri Lanka currently. Mosques and muslim businesses are being attacked, and foreign organizations helping to spread Islam are being tracked (also, there is a false propaganda claiming there is muslim terrorist groups operating in Sri Lanka). Hence, I don't think it is advisable to approach her directly.

If it is a strict requirement that personal details are required, then may I ask you to recommend some books for a person with a Buddhist background (In my experience, dealing with Buddhists are difficult compared to Christians and Hindus). I shall see if I can get them here.

Thank you,

Nuzhan

Doctorji.Its an excellent site and wonderful taweez.I do read all the duas.but now ur site has given me more knowledge .

As for the Yaseen taweez on the site..is it right that ,I Can download the taweez copy and write it with my own hands and then keep with me or with my 13 yr old daughter.Can she keep the taweez with her for sharp memory.

Or is it must ..that some maulana should write the taweez and then only it can be kept.Because my husband was angry that how could I copy it down.Have I done something wrong. Pls guide me.I was a non-muslim converted to a muslim.

U have the bestest knowledge and ur site gives a deep impact on the readers.Shall always remember u in all the duas

Pls do pray for me too,as am going through many hardships.

One more thing Doctorji.On the site in Vision section...did not understand the dreams...as whose visions are those and the writing is unclear.

Jazakallah Khair

Wa laikum salam, Sana

JazakAllah for ur feedback and many congrats on becoming a Muslim and may Allah bless u in both the worlds. Please remember that EVERY ONE of us faces hardships in life and in fact such problems, though unpleasant, help us to surmount obstacles in life.

If the NAQSH ie numbers of the Taweez are already published on the Site, u would not need to then write them out by hand. Just fold the printed Naqsh and keep it in a locket to wear round the neck and ur daughter could also wear one for memory and success in life, depending on how many copies u print out. I pray that ur husband is hale and hearty.

My younger brother had visions of my Reward in Jannat InshAllah and I have had dreams that his Visions are True. I plan to rewrite these Visions in bigger and clearer handwriting or to type them out in the near future. His diagrams describe what I will own in Jannat InshAllah if Allah chooses to forgive me and then bless me on account of my Islamic work.

The good news is that we have already published another set of these Visions, please see Visions of Paradise on www.dr-umar-azam.com and please tell me what you think.

With salam and duas,

Dr Umar
