Eid, Festival of peace

Eid is celebrated on the first date of Shawwal, that is, the tenth month of the Hijra calendar. During the festival, Muslims exchange gifts, greeting their neighbours as a mark of solidarity and brotherhood. It is reported that when the Prophet of Islam saw the new moon at the coming of the month of Shawwal, He said: "O God, make this moon a moon of peace for us." This saying of the Prophet expresses the true spirit of Eid that is meant to promote spiritual values among people and create a peaceful environment in society.

Al-Quran Mission

Al Quran Mission is the mission launched by Maulana Wahiduddin Khan to spread copies of the Quran translations worldwide. It is strictly non-political in nature and international in its purview. Its purpose is to disseminate Quranic teachings by all the available means, such as the print and electronic media, in order to promote religious understanding among different peoples. The main objective is to make copies of the Quran and relevant literature easily available to every man and woman throughout the world.

Newsroom: Call to God Through the Internet

The Internet is the ideal medium to spread the word of God to make the following tradition of the Prophet of Islam to come true: "No house – small or big – shall remain but the word of God shall enter into it." ## Islam: Salvation

What is the greatest issue facing man in this world? It is how to secure salvation in the life after death so that he may find his true abode and have a share in God's eternal blessings. Every man who is born in this present world has to enter another world after death. In this world man was granted life's opportunities as a matter of being tested by them. Whatever man receives in the next world will be purely on the basis of his deeds in this world. This means that in the world before death, man has been given a great number of things and opportunities, whether or not he deserved them. But after death, the criterion of receiving will only be a matter of his just deeds; nothing will be given to him to try him.

New Book: What is Islam

In the book What is Islam Maulana Wahiduddin Khan explains that the concept of God, Tawheed, in Islam provides man with the right ideology of life. And it is in submission to the One God and living a God-oriented life that man finds complete fulfilment and purpose of life. This is the essence of Islam.

Dawah Lillalah: Dawah Work, Non-Dawah Method

Dawah has been called in the Quran 'Calling People to God' (2:143, 41:33). Calling people to God means making people aware of God's Creation Plan, to inform man that the only right way of life for a person in this world is to lead a God-oriented life and not a self-oriented life or any other kind of life with a different orientation. Today dawah work has become a fad. There are many who are engaged in different activities in the name of dawah. It is important to understand dawah work and the right dawah method.

At Al-Quran Mission the method of undertaking the call to God is very simple. Maulana Wahiduddin Khan has translated the Quran in simple, contemporary English and other languages and also prepared small leaflets, booklets, books and DVDs of lectures explaining Islam in English, Hindi and Urdu. Al-Quran Mission members worldwide strive to distribute the Quran translation copies and dawah material through every possible means. Based on their experiences they have prepared the following modules of certain methods that have been successful to spread the material.

Dawah Material: The Reality of Life

The Reality of Life booklet is ideal to introduce the purpose of life as per Islam to people in general. It explains the plan of their Creator in sending them to this world in a simple language. It explains what Allah expects from them in the pre-death and what they will face in the post-death period of their life. In short it expands on the reality of life that awaits man in the hereafter and what they should do in the present world to be successful in the next eternal world, that is the concept of accountability to Allah and the criterion for success in the next world for success.

This booklet is available in English, German and Japanese and can be easily forwarded to explain the Creation Plan of Allah to people you know.

Video: Concept of Paradise

In his talk, the Maulana Wahiduddin Khan explains why paradise is the real extension of man's unfulfilled present-day life. The most significant aspect of paradise will be God Almighty Himself! Paradise will be the place where the creation will meet its Creator. Being able to finally meet his ultimate Benefactor will be supremely joyful for man! These blessed souls who would get selected for paradise will dwell in the company of angels and the best men from amongst the entire history of mankind. The thrill of interacting with such beings that would be pure and positive to the core would be unparalleled. Amidst all these joys that man would experience, would be the joy of fulfilment of his desires! Man with his entire existence is desirous of this very Paradise and Paradise with its entire existence awaits him!

Podcasts: Material Science and Spiritual Science

In his talk, the Maulana Wahiduddin Khan draws comparisons to discuss why no advancement could take place in spiritual world whereas material world witnessed great advancement and a material civilisation came into being. He analyses that while reason and rational thinking were the premise of material world, heart-based spirituality was the idea that the spiritualists subscribed to. For thousands of years, heart remained the focus and consequently no progress could be attained in the field of spirituality through the development of the mind. Citing references from the Quran, Hadith and life of the companions, the Maulana discards the concept of 'Shafaat,' or guaranteed salvation (as is widely held by Muslims) saying that believing in this concept inculcates complacency. In order for the mind to develop, constant realisation of being accountable for one's deeds is utmost. This coupled with clarity on the fact that paradise will not be had by way of recommendation will ensure that man actively plans the life hereafter.

Monthly Magazine: Al-Risala

Issue: August 2012

Maulana Wahiduddin Khan launched Al-Risala, a monthly magazine, in 1976. This journal, consisting entirely of his articles, quickly acquired a wide circulation throughout the Urdu-speaking world. The first issue of the English version of Al-Risala was launched in February 1984.

Articles: The Spirit of Islam

Islam is the answer to the demands of nature. It is in fact a counterpart of human nature. This is why Islam has been called a religion of nature in the Qur'an and Hadith. A man once came to the Prophet Muhammad and asked him what he should do in a certain matter. The Prophet replied, 'Consult your heart about it.' By the heart the Prophet meant common sense. That is, what one's common sense tells one would likewise be the demand of Islam. What does human nature desire more than anything? It desires, above all, peace and love. Every human being wants to live in peace and to receive love from the people around him. Peace and love are the religion of human nature as well as the demand of Islam. The Qur'an tells us, and God calls to the home of peace." (10:25) This is the true spirit of Islam.

Books: The Prophet Muhammad: A Simple Guide to his Life

In his book, The Prophet Muhammad: A Simple Guide to his Life, Maulana Wahiduddin Khan not only describes the life of the Prophet Muhammad but also analyses in depth the message conveyed to us by his life. He lays enormous emphasis on the fact that the Prophet Muhammad went out of his way to follow a policy of peace throughout his life, contrary to the misconception that a significant part of his life was spent on warfare. The Prophet Muhammad was supremely successful at both the religious and secular levels. The exemplary life he lived can serve as an unflinching guide to right thinking and right living even in this modern age.

Blog: Speaking Truth

Speaking the truth is not only a matter of policy for the believer: it is his very religion. Compromising in the matter of truth is not possible for him. He speaks the truth as he cannot live without doing so. He speaks the truth because he knows that not speaking the truth is the negation of his own personality and commitment to something, which is the negation of the self, is not possible for any worthy person.

FAQs: How Can one stay in a positive frame of mind?

Speaking Tree | TOI | May 8, 2011

The main reason for negativity is our complex. People suffer from all kinds of complexes, such as prejudice and envy. Free yourself of these feelings and you will be able to come up with a positive response in all kinds of situations. A negative reaction is an emotional reaction, while a positive response is a rational response. A negative response pulls you down, while a positive response produces healthy results.

I WISH YOU A VERY HAPPY MARRIAGE WHEN YOU DO MARRY, ASMA. YOUR DREAMS DON'T NECESSARILY MEAN THAT YOUR MARRIAGE WILL BE UNHAPPY BECAUSE YOU MISS YOUR PARENTS ETC. THEY COULD BE TELLING YOU THAT YOU ARE A SENTIMENTAL TYPE OF PERSON: YOU WISH YOU HAD THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS - A HAPPY MARRIAGE AND BEING PHYSICALLY CLOSE TO YOUR PARENTS.

Each student has a piece of rotten greenish meat and white fungus on a piece of underwear if front of them for an experiment. I saw that dream after sunrise between 6.30 and 9.30 am.

second day I saw that i have a wound on my knee and I am digging out the wound. I saw that around 10 a.m.

My daughter wants to go overseas for higher studies. That is why i did istikhara. Please let me know as soon as possible she will be leaving in 2 weeks. I have to decide whether to send her or not.

Assalamualaikum Dr. saheb,

Thank you very much for your quick reply. I would like to ask you tabeer of my another dream. That one was few days before I did istekhara in Ramadan. I saw myself and my friends we both wearing white dresses with pink embroidery, it is eid day. Then I noticed there is pink stain on my dress. My friend has pink drink in her hand, I am telling her that she dropped it on my shirt. and she is laughing, I said i am going to change.

Next day I saw, I am wearing white pants and something redish or orange dropping on my pants and I am trying to stay away from it . By the way, in both dreams I am wearing new cloths.

These dreams were not for istikhara.

Please let me know what it means.

Thank you.

To Each Its Attribute

Fragrant rose, vivid dream;

Gentle snowflake, swirling stream.

Beaming sun, silent night;

Shooting star, celestial light.

Fleeting life, inevitable death;

Transient time, life-endowing breath.

Sweetness of honey, melodious lute;

Spewing volcano, delicate fruit.

Fluffy cloud, brittle slate;

Rigid iron, ponderous weight.

Fickle weather, luxurious silk;

Abhorrent poison, nourishing milk.

Candid truth, deceptive lie;

Humble earth, canopy high.

Floating butterfly, living sea;

Reviving rain, remedial tea.

Flourishing love, passion of male;

Apt caution, wary female.

To each its own, God-given due;

Tyou your fate, my love to you!

Thank you for your reply.

basically i had 3 different career paths to choose from so i did istikhara in the early part of this year.

first night i asked about the first career path and asked Allah to show me what he wanted me to do or what was good for me so i could follow it firmly.

in my dream i saw a huge orange or maybe it was a grapefruit. then i saw a wide silver color container with a bunch of the oranges/grapefruits and they were half full in dark red liquid which i was looking at and thinking is this blood or maybe its the blood of the oranges(meaning juice). it was like someone placed the container with the liquid and fruit where i was sleeping on the bed. in my dream i had raised my back and some of my shirt was dipped in the liquid. the dream was so real that when i woke up i thought there was a stain on my shirt and thought maybe some of it fell on my white bed sheets.

i asked some people what they thought. one person said good dream should follow the path but later she said it means your efforts will have no benefit.

second person said that seeing blood in istikhara for job means alot of hardwork. i am very confused about this dream as it was a clear sign but i dont know what it means.

also around the same time i asked my mother to do istikhara for me to check if i should do 12 month internship, 3 month internship or nothing. she said she saw three pastries and later in the night something like a year or 12. i assumed her dream meant 12 month internship so i started applying but was not able to secure anything.

now this is my final year and my mother says maybe the dream meant that i would get a job after a year and i should not be worried.

please help with the translation. if you need to ask any questions then please do so.

JazakAllah Khair
