Assalam o Alikum Mohtaram Uazam, last night i saw a dream again , before telling u about dream i want to tell the background about it i love a girl and wants to marry her but my parents don't want that girl .

in the dream ,which i saw, i married that girl she get pregnant but all of a sudden the pregnancy transferred to my younger brother and he has to pass the labor and pain some how major operation carried out and Allah gave me a baby girl though i want a baby boy and regarding my wife i was not very happy. the child remains with me and then i loved that baby thought that it is God wil so i distributed sweets in neighbors for my baby girl.after that my wife went to her parents house after some time his father came to my house looks he do not know that we got married and we have a child too . a friend of my father came and told that her father will not agree and he is in angry mood, so my father went to understand him...

sir that's what i remember i am afraid why i see such dreams and why i remember them

Kind Regards,

Syed Waqar Hussain

Subject: SADQA

WA LAIKUM SALAM, BR. SYED,

WHAT YOU HEARD IS CORRECT [PLEASE SEE ARTICLE BELOW].

- Mosques: Built over a graveyard

When I went to my home country on vacation, I observed that a grand mosque was built on top of a graveyard. There is still a tomb below the mosque. I wonder whether this is appropriate. If not, what should be done about this mosque?

The Prophet says that one of the favors which Allah has given to the nation of Islam is that the whole earth has been made a "Masjid" for it; [Masjid is the Arabic word for "mosque"]. This refers to the fact that a Muslim may offer his prayer anywhere on earth, provided of course that the place where he is praying is free from impurity. However, the Prophet has made an exception in the two cases of a graveyard and a bathroom. Prayer may not be offered in these two places. Nor is it permissible for a Muslim to offer his prayer facing a grave or a tomb or any burial place. The Prophet curses the children of Israel for having "turned the graves of their prophets into praying places."

All this makes it clear that places of burial are not proper to build mosques in, nor is it permissible to build a mosque around a grave or a tomb. The reason for this is to prevent any possibility of enshrining the burial place of any person. That is a sure way which leads to entertaining polytheistic beliefs.

It is not permissible to build a mosque within a graveyard. If such a mosque is built, then the only proper thing to do with it is to demolish it. If there is one in your locality, then it is preferable for you to pray at home than to pray in that mosque.

Having said that, I wish to take up the different case of a disused graveyard where there are no more dead people buried. Can we use that graveyard to build a mosque there? The answer is that it may be permissible if certain conditions are met.

To start with, it should be reasonable to assume that those who were buried have perished altogether. A graveyard is thus demolished and a mosque built in its place. This is acceptable, but we should be careful when we dig the place and when we lay down the foundation. If there are any bones or traces of the dead people, they should be gathered and buried somewhere else. The Prophet's mosque in Madinah was built in a place where there were some graves. These were dug out and the traces of those who were buried in them were taken away. No one associated the new mosque with the old graveyard. If these conditions are met, then it is permissible to build a mosque in an area which used to be a burial place. Your advice to the people should be on the basis of this answer. If there are graves around the new mosque then the mosque should be disused altogether. It is better demolished.

• Mosques: Donations offered by non-Muslims

When we were raising funds to build a mosque for our community, a non-Muslim friend offered some donation which we did not take because we were unsure whether such a donation can be accepted for the building of a mosque. Could you please clarify? If it is acceptable, should such a donation be limited to certain areas of the mosque, such as the ablution area, or the entrance as some of us suggested. If it is acceptable, can a Muslim donate for the building of a church or a temple for non-Muslims? May I also ask whether Zakat-ul-fitr may be used for the building of a mosque?

There is a statement in the Qur'an which suggests that non-Muslims never build a mosque or houses of worship dedicated for God alone. The meaning is clear in this verse that the term, 'build' refers here to the 'worship of God alone.' They will never do that when they admit to being non-believers, either by denying the message of Islam or by associating partners with God.

On the other hand, the term 'build' also means the actual construction of a mosque or maintaining and looking after it. This a non-Muslim may do, in the same way as the non-believers of Quraish used to tend the Grand Mosque in Makkah and look after it and the pilgrims. However, it is not permissible in Islam that a non-Muslim should be in full charge of a mosque attending to all its affairs and looking after its endowments, etc. As for a non-Muslim taking part in the actual construction of the mosque, such as fixing its doors and windows or laying its bricks, etc. this is permissible.

As for putting up money for the building of a mosque, or donating to its fund at the time when funds are raised for its building, this is acceptable provided that the Muslims fear no harm to result from such contributions, either with respect to the mosque itself, or to its usage, or indeed any other harm, even political. Sheikh Rasheed Redha, a prominent scholar who lived in the early part of this century, mentioned this and gives the following example:

Suppose that the Jews in this period of time, (i.e. long before the creation of Israel) offer to renovate the Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem and to strengthen its foundation, the Muslims may not accept such an offer even if they only provide the funds and the Muslims undertake the work involved. That is because of their well-known ambition to take the mosque over, as they claim to have rights to it.

What this means in practical terms is that if you are absolutely sure that your friend has no purpose other than being friendly with Muslims you may take his donation and use it for the building of the mosque. Muslims may not contribute to the building of any temple or church, because they know that in such places, the Oneness of God is not enshrined as it should be. Hence, they may not help in facilitating that. But Muslims may treat with kindness any non-Muslim individual or community who wishes to have cordial relations with them.

Zakat-ul-fitr, which is a zakah that is levied at the end of Ramadhan, is meant to make every poor person in the Muslim community self-sufficient or even better on the occasion of the Eid that follows the fasting month. [Hence it cannot be used for building mosques.]

Dearest Dr.Umar Assalam Alai Kum.

Hope you will be fine and I wish ALLAH (SWT) keeps you fit and fine forever and i wish ALLAH TAALA gives you all the success for the work which you are doing for his sinfull followers. Dr Umar recently i saw in the dream that i was in MASJID E NABUWI near the carpet area of JANNAT which is in the mosque. Two day before i saw in the dream that i was giving AZAN and calling people for SALAAH. For your valuable information, just 15-20 days back i did my UMRAAH. What is the meaning of the two dreams which i saw? And what should i do? Kindly also be informed that even if i offer 5 times salaah every day. I make KAZAA salaah for FAJR prayers. And i also watch things on T.V. which i know i should not. Instead i got such dreams. I just cant understand.? Can you please forward your valuable quotes to me about the same. MAY ALLAH TAALA WILL DEFINETELY GIVE YOU JAZAA E KHAIR FOR THIS - AMEEN.

Salam Alikum

DR: UMAR AZAM,

I thought I had filled it some time ago. Maybe I did something wrong, so nothing were left there.

any way, I remember I said I liked your site and Found it very helpful. My only "complain" was regarding the colors and some times the size od the fonts. I'm used to read a lot on net, so sight became tired after some time. The contrast of colors makes not easy to read. I live in a country where net speed is terribly slow, so with big fonts I have to wait more time to read, while the page is displaying. I also remember now that the time I ws pregnant, this kind of contrast (about colors) used to give me headache and made not possible even to watch TV.

Only left to say: Congratulations for your site and thanks for all help I find there.

Allah Hafiz.

Dearest Dr,Umar Azam - Assalam Alai Kum,

May keep you fit and fine forever and grant you all the success in your Islamic work. I want to ask you one personal question, hope you will not get angry on me.

1) Are you a spiritual healer ? (Do you have any divine power or divine knowlege gifted by ALLAW (SWT) of worldly affairs?) Like can you guide someone in the light of ALLAH with your divine or spiritual knowledge for his world affairs.

2) I am a Mureed of Sayedna Ghaus E Pak but i dont know the obligations which a mureed should follow. Can you guide ?

3) Can you please suggest me any easy and effective zikr (in the light of Quran / Hadees) which is not hot on mind for becoming financially strong (wealthy) because I have some loan on me and I also want to solve out my accommodation problem.

4) Is masterbation permissable in Islam in any of the circumstances?

Please forgive me if you are hurted by any means about my first question. Definitely ALLAH will shall give you JAZAYE KHAIR for the same.

Hello Umar,

Welcome to Your Manchester E-News, the new email newsletter from the Division of Development and Alumni Relations. Your Manchester E-News is sent exclusively to alumni who have signed up to Your Manchester Online.

Thank you for being one of our very first alumni to register with 'Your Manchester Online'. We hope that you are enjoying this new service. If you haven't already updated your profile, please don't forget to do so! For others to view your details, such as your email address, you will need to unclick the 'private box'. The more alumni that do this, the more effective the directory will become. Also, don't forget there are some other great features too such as discussion forums and classnotes!

Your Manchester Online will have been launched to all alumni by June 2007. Meanwhile, we have plans for many additional features, including a Business Networking Directory, so please do keep re-visiting the site.

We are, as always, keen to hear your feedback about any aspect of the alumni relations programme, the University itself and of course about 'Your Manchester Online'. Equally, we welcome interesting news from alumni for publication. Please share your comments and news with us by emailing alumni@manchester.ac.uk and if you know of any other alumni who might be interested in joining Your Manchester Online and receiving this E-News, please encourage them to register!

Dear Dr. Umar azam,

I had this dreams today. I hope you will kindly give your precious time to interpret my Khwaab.....

From Sydney, Australia

May 12

Jubair Rashid

Age: 21

Date of Birth:16 February 1986

As Salamualaikum,

About Me: I always think and hope good for people even for criminals and Kafer so that they turn Muslim and escape dojokh. I forget about anything if someone says bad about me because the teachings of Rasullullah (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallum) says one day he/she will understand and will feel that they are very wrong to say something to you.

But I also have lots of interests for movies and music as other people of this generation has (which is now very normal to the society).

But I tried not to do any Kabira Gunnah at least like drinking and adultery.

Current Situation: I am from Bangladesh and came to Sydney to study Bachelor of Aeronautical (Space) Engineering. My father is a very religious person (and also became Hajji when he married because my maternal grandfather (Nanaji was an Aleem and it's his condition to marry her daughter). My father didn't saw my mum; he only saw the Mumin character of my Nanaji and was pleased to marry my mom.

My uncle (my barei Chachaji) took all my father's wealth and property by some business contract (they are business partner). But after a long bitter family thing during when our family struggled, he agreed to pay my educational cost in Australia (obviously to prove my father was wrong to end business with him).

I always tried to follow 5 Namaz with the help of my father when I was in Bangladesh.

When I came to Australia I didn't put much effort in study and is doing average results. I have a feeling I can do better if I put more effort and last week I didn't attended a class except one Quiz (Which was easy and I got 100%). Now today I haven't slept for last 23 hrs(because I needed to go to work) and then after 4 hrs work at a Bakery shop I eat beef gusto and rice and slept. I haven't prayed for at least last two months and missed last two weeks Jumma(May Allah Forgive me).

About my sister I never really had a great relation with her but also not a hatred just good sometimes and angry sometimes. Not very special (average) .

Dream 1: Now I wake up at 0800pm.....

I dreamt I think at 08:00 pm: I dreamt of I am near a railway track (not in a station) and I am going to catch a train. I think I need to catch a train and suddenly I found my sister. I then run to catch the train but it didn't seem to stop but it suddenly slow down and its gate (made of collapsible metal gate allow only a person to enter while running. I went to catch the train but my sister isn't interested and when I asked her she said it's local train. I tried to explain it's all right after going through local train we will stop and will catch the big train. But she is unmoved (she isn't prepared to catch a running train). So I approached her and pull her hand and made her to run and catch it. Then it started to gain speed and I went first and then pull her hand and she just made into the door of the train. Then I wake up..... and after 3 min I slept again. Then I wake up at 1120pm.....

Something about this next Khwaab:

1. This house I went to get Laptop is not my current house but a house near my last old place in Sydney which in reality doesn't exist (there is no such building).
2. I bought the Laptop 3 weeks earlier.

3. I waste a lot of time on my computer at night and slept in the morning and thus missing classes.
4. About the girl I married I heard some girl of such character who is my Khala's friend in Uni. My khala is just 2.5 yrs elder than me and we are more like a friend. And whenever I heard about someone my mind makes a picture of it and the girl in my dream was similar but not her. In dream I didn't talked to her or saw her from very close. But I picture her and I saw her with long Parda on her head from far. (It's difficult to say whether I saw her from far or my mind just pictures her in dream).
5. The place looks more like a community centre than a house (I am not so sure).

Dream 2: My dream.....

I think I dreamt just a min before 11:20pm. I dreamt I married a girl. I didn't know anything about it (My father fixed everything) and there are some people from girl's relative and very few from my family in a place (please see 5). I don't have problem with it because I am ready to marry a girl if she was of something like Mumin character. But I felt that I haven't yet had kabin but I am married because I felt that the girl said kobul and my father said that I also agreed to marry, (which I didn't because I don't know anything and then I heard that I married a girl). Well then I dreamt I am going to the girl's father house maybe for ceremony and maybe I will stay there but I need some time to get ready(mentally and physically) so I went back to the house giving excuse that I left my Laptop (. Then I spent sometime with it and had bath but I made late willingly because I am a little disappointed because my father married me a girl when I didn't even said Kobul (I felt that I had no problem marrying a girl of my father's choice if she is of Mumin character).But I felt that my father feared I will say no If he fixed any girl so he did such rush without notifying me and that's disappoint me that my father felt I won't show respect to him in that matter. Then I heard someone from my family (not my father) urging me to get ready quickly. I felt I am doing it purposely by wasting time by thinking that: I married unprepared (that's disappointed me and also make me excited of having a feeling of husband which I never had before) and my mind says to me: well are you going to waste time here but what will your wife felt there that you are wasting time and getting late and ignoring her? Then I wake up at 11:20pm (around).....

I have given you a lot of my current incidents here but I felt this is a very special Khwaab which I had in a long time and it's not just thinking in a sleep but something special. That's why I am writing to you hope you will figure out something.

Now thanks a lot for giving your priceless time for my Khwaab. I hope you will kindly figure out some explanation to it.

I will be very grateful if you please reply.

May Allah give us all Hedayet.

Allah Hafez.

Call To Register 410-356-2000 ext. 101

Dear Umar,

It's just two short months until your poetic accomplishments will be honored at Poetry.com's and the International Society of Poets' 2007 Convention and Symposium, to be held at the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada from July 19-22, 2007.

I'm writing to tell you exactly what to expect and how to prepare for this special moment in your life.

, we have scheduled you to receive your Outstanding Achievement in Poetry Imported Lead Crystal Award Trophy immediately after you present your poetry in front of your fellow poets. You can count on a true international audience for your poetry as we already have poets registered from 26 countries around the world!

, the award you will be receiving is so large and heavy that it may be a good idea for you to bring an extra suitcase to carry it home. The award, a magnificent work of art (a $300.00 value) is made from hand-engraved imported lead crystal and mounted on a solid marble base. This impressive award features a finely crafted hand holding a blue crystal globe, symbolizing the Society's mission to spread poetry around the world. I'm sure it will merit a special place of pride in your home.

, it's my pleasure to inform you that we have also decided to create and present to you a beautiful and colorful Commemorative Award Medallion in appreciation of your poetry presentation at this prestigious international symposium.

, you need to submit your registration to the convention as soon as possible, as our available space will sell out. While we regret having to turn poets away, we purposely limit space to ensure a close-knit atmosphere where lasting friendships will be made. Poets consistently tell us they appreciate this policy, and that the opportunity to make new friends is one of their favorite reasons for returning again and again.

And Umar . . . there's much more . . .

50 POETS WILL SHARE $100,000.00 TOTAL IN PRIZES!
INCLUDING THE SINGLE LARGEST POETRY CASH PRIZE EVER AWARDED
- $20,000.00 AND A $10,000 BOOK PUBLISHING CONTRACT!

And don't forget the most lucrative amateur poetry contest ever! Your contest entry poem can be written in any style, on any subject . . . and can be up to 40 lines long.

Just think . . . for this poem alone, you will have the opportunity to win one of 30 cash and gift prizes to be awarded at the symposium . . . including a Grand Prize of $20,000.00--the largest cash prize ever awarded in an amateur poetry competition. There's also a Second Prize of $10,000.00, Third Prize of $5,000.00, two Fourth Prizes of $2,500.00, and five Fifth Prizes of $1,000.00, and 15 other cash prizes of $500.00 each.

Your Society is also encouraging today's youth to develop and utilize their poetic talents in a positive manner. This year, we will award five $1,000.00 cash scholarships to talented young poets attending the symposium.

In all, $100,000.00 in cash and prizes will be awarded at this single event!

LIGHTS . . . CAMERA . . . ACTION!

And that's still just the beginning . . . we've got three very special days planned for you . . . ones you'll never forget!

- You will be officially inducted as an honorary "International Poet of Merit" for 2007.
- You and your poetic achievements will be honored at a gala banquets and awards ceremony.
- You will enjoy dazzling world class entertainment created especially for you featuring "American Idol" winner Ruben Studdard and Emmy-winning comedian Louie Anderson.
- You will learn more about your craft in seminars, reading rooms, rap sessions, and workshops, where you can read and discuss your poetry in informal settings with other poets from all over the world. Back by popular demand are the ISP rap rooms, our famous sunrise poetry readings, the ISP open microphone rooms, and workshops on how to fine-tune your poetic talents.
- You will have the rare opportunity to get up-close and personal with Pulitzer Prize-winning poet W. D. Snodgrass, Academy of American Poets Past Chancellor David Wagoner, Dr. Herbert Woodward Martin, and over a dozen other poetry celebrities who will be in attendance.
- You will participate in a fantastic international poetry competition featuring 50 prizes totaling $100,000.00. A Grand Prize of $20,000.00.
- You and your guests will also be eligible to win one of many door prizes, valued at over $10,000.00.
- You will make friendships that will last a lifetime and will return home with wonderful memories, your Outstanding Achievement in Poetry Imported Lead Crystal Award Trophy, your Commemorative Award Medallion, and lots of other special gifts.

DON'T BE LEFT OUT!

Don't miss this opportunity. Space is limited, and our Conventions routinely sell out. Plan to join your fellow poets in the most amazing city in the world, Las Vegas, Nevada at the legendary Riviera from July 19-22, 2007 for the poetic event of the year! I am also looking forward to meeting you and celebrating the power and beauty of poets and poetry!

Sincerely,

Steve Michaels
