Please tell Interpretation of Dream

To

Assalamu Alaikum

I want to know the interpretation of my dream.

I sleep after the Fajar prayer and recitation of Holy Quran. I saw this dream.

I am going to ka'aba with my friend he was guiding me in all the journey. First we stopped in a mosque (I don't remember it was a mosque or something else but it was looking like a mosque) ahead of ka'aba. There was a big sea outside this mosque and the water was coming from the mosque and falling in to the sea and there were some naughty boys swimming and bathing in this sea. I asked my friend about the depth of sea where the boys are swimming he told that it is 6 miles deep. I afraid about the depth. My friend asked me please beware of these boys they can push you in the sea. There was a very narrow passage between the mosque and sea on which we have to walk for ka'aba. When I start walking on this passage a boy came by running and try to push me in the sea. I suddenly turn myself on the mosque side and cross this boy safely. while in the way to ka'aba my friend told me beware about your pockets and money. I have a mobile set in side pocket i put it in my from pocket and start walking. When we reached the ka'aba mosque(it was a under construction mosque with bricks and not really the ka'aba) it was full of people. My friend ask me to stand here i will search for some space. At this moment i wake up.

Please tell me the interpretation.

Hello Dr. Umar Azam

Salaam Alaikum

Regret to inform you that I could not do anything on the subject due to the sudden demise of my father [may Allah s.w.t forgive him and admit him to jannah] and soon after the demise of mother I was totally shattered. Also my buisness suffered a lot, I could not do anything positive so far after they both departed - may Allah s.w.t grant them both Jannah.

Inshallah, I shall look into this soon as I get some time off.

Wa Alaikum Salam,

I had already given my detailed feedback abt the book. Just adding to the same... It was indeed Alhamdulillah very good.

I read through the entire text. Masha Allah it has the entire collection of parables in one stretch.

I found tat the explanation of some parables is written in such a way tat it is not related explicitly. Only wen i read it twice or thrice, i was able to understand the relation between the parable and the explanation. Eg is 31, 34 etc.. People who might read once, might not see the inner meaning of the parable. So such parables if explained in detail specifying the relationship, it will be very useful.

Some parables were short and up to the point which was nice.

In parable 36 : ther is a spell error...

THE SIMULTUDE OF THOSE WHO WERE CHARGED WITH THE [OBLIGATIONS OF THE] MOSAICLAW, BUT WHO SUBSEQUENTLY FAILED IN THOSE [OBLIGATIONS], IS THAT OF A DONKEY WHICH CARRIES HUGE TOMES [BUT UNDERSTANDS THEM NOT]. EVIL IS THE SIMULTUDE OF PEOPLE WHO FALSIFY THE SIGNS OF ALLAH: AND ALLAH GUIDES NOT PEOPLE WHO DO WRONG.

So these are my feed backs.Hope they are useful for u.

Insha Allah, do include me if u need my help or feedback in any of ur other works too..

Wassalam,

Shameem

Wal ey kum as alam Dr Sahib.

Hope that you are well and things are going good for you. Yeah, its quite a comprehensive list, i've looked through most of it and it is quite interesting to note the vegetarian products. We have to be extra careful you see, I've seen vegetarian products containing alcohol a few years ago. so if its okay for vegetarians, it does not necessarily mean its okay for muslims. As you know English vegetarians drink alcohol because it is brewed from hops, barley etc, so its okay for them - but not us.

Interesting nevertheless. I'll pass it on to a few of my friends its important we eat the right stuff.

Take care and hear from you again soon.

I think it would be easier to put things in laimans terms. Basically have the letters at the end as a reference. But make the first few pages for the haram products and then following it would be what is halal. Maybe, adding the latest info about the juicy fruit gum and burger king to your list would be good to since these are eaten more on a daily basis compared to some of the items on your list.

I hope this helps.

Dear Umar,

My name is Edward Curran and I represent one of the largest publishers of poetry, Publish Today. I just returned from the recent International Society of Poets Convention & Symposium, where I was a guest speaker, and many of the poets who I had the privilege to speak with asked me questions about copyrighting their written material. I am not a lawyer and therefore couldn't give them legal advice, but I've been a publisher for some time and I felt comfortable sharing my views on copyrighting with them. Once you write a poem, your work is protected by copyright. However, the problem exists when you attempt to enforce your copyright. If you haven't registered your work with the Copyright Office of the U.S. Library of Congress, you may not be able to prove the date on which you wrote the material. Many people choose to have their poetry copyrighted so that there is a permanent record of their written material. For that reason, I've created a special promotion where I will assign your material an International Standard Book Number (ISBN), fill out all of the necessary paperwork, print the additional two copies, and pay the registration fee . . . all for free.

Some publishers charge hundreds of dollars for this service, but I am willing to do it for absolutely free once your material has completed the layout process. There are some costs involved in publishing, but many of our authors spend less than $300 preparing their manuscript for publication.

Umar, this isn't some flashy way to sell books, although we do hope that you become a long-term customer with a successful career as an author. For now, all you have to do is email me at ecurran@publishtoday.com and I will send you a Book Design Order Form, or you can go to www.PublishToday.com for more publishing information. If you would like to talk to someone who can help you with this, please feel free to contact us at 410-356-2000 ext. 118.

Sincerely,

Edward Curran

P.S. If you've ever dreamed of publishing your own book of poetry, Publish Today can help you fulfill this aspiration. We are a full-service publisher with the resources to reach all of your publishing goals . . . no matter how ambitious they are. We look forward to working with you on your next book.

Hello

We have recently been in contact with Salman Soni about this issue and there are no problems at our end that will prevent the transfer from going ahead.

Hello,

I'm just enquiring if you are still holding my domain name www.dr-umar-azam.com or whether Salman Soni has instigated a tranfer and taken over this domain name [my Site is still not being hosted by his company, even after a month, as he claims there is a problem over the domain name].

Dear Dr Azam

www.dr-umar-azam.co.uk is available to register.

This will cost £9.00 per annum (two years registration required by the registrar).

From your previous transactions with us, I notice that you prefer to pay by cheque/postal order.

If you require us to register this domain name for you, please send a cheque or postal order (made out to Quarry Hill Publishing) for £18.00 to:

Quarry Hill Publishing

PO Box 159

Nantwich

CW5 7XE

and I will personally ensure that the domain name is registered in your name.

Kind regards

Anna Tyler
