As you can see the format is just haywire.

To work with anything all updates especially such vast content will have to be requested in a standard Microsoft Word format.

On the .com website, the previous firm used to copy & paste into the server the material I sent - a short job. Do you have to do something else?

Just a quick update on the website comments, I've just spent the last three hours trying to replicate them into a webpage but its proving very unsuccessful. The total number of hours required to do the all of them would be absolutely immense.

Yes, the Guest Book comments are the .co.uk Site. If you can do them within a few weeks, I'd be grateful because there's no highlights or colour to complicate things. Then we'll talk about the paid work I mentioned. Thanks.

I'm just in the process of uploading the rest of the pictures.

What do you want me to do with the guestbook comments, are they for the .com or .co.uk site?
Unfortunately I can't give a deadline as to when this will be placed on to the website purely because they are so many and not really just a quick update.

Regards, Emran

p.s was not agreed for me to update the .com site, only the .co.uk as we only did the hosting for .com

Assalamualaikum Dr.Umar

JAZAKALLAH for your prompt reply and your detailed report. I just got time to read it while going to work today morning.

I am basically from Pakistan, but residing in UAE. Though being a muslim country I always thought that majority of products are imported like Nestle, etc hence I should know whether they are Halal or not. And I am glad to find that certain products like Flake, Cadbury, Ferrero Rocher, KitKat which my siblings usually are fond of are in fact Halal. Also I personally e mailed Nestle consumer service dept, the reply of which is at the end.

I am almost done with the research related to chocolates. These days I am finding about the food colours used, for eg Foster Clarks. It's the only company I usually find in the super markets. Do you have any idea of them being halal or not?.

Also I would request you to share your report on www.yanabi.com in the HALAL section. Your report would benefit many Muslims living in UK (as majority of users are UK based)..

ALLAH HAFIZ

Dear Zainab,

Thank you for contacting NESTLE Middle East with your inquiry.

With reference to your query, please note that Nestle Products world wide maintain the same quality which constantly is being improved, however the aspects of each product varies i.e. the product produced for Middle East is different than the ones available in Brazil, India etc. Products coming for Middle East must respect all specification and regulation mandated by the authorities in our region, for example when we use gelatin or any ingredient from animal source it will be clearly declared in the ingredients list and it is definitely HALAL as mandated by the law.

All the ingredients that are used in Nestle products that intended to Middle East are HALAL and in conformity with the international legislation and local food regulation that enforced in these Muslim countries.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any further question or inquiry.

Thank you once again for contacting us.

Asalaamualaikum,

Alhamdulillah i have been through your listing of halal foods and it is widely comprehensive at which i am impressed.

maybe one suggestion is that when sending these emails out maybe you can reformat the way you have laid the email out, it appears quite cluttered even though it is valuable information. i know you have a website maybe you could put the letters from the various companies on there and when sending emails out just a comprehensive list of halal foods? and also maybe lose the different colours.

this is just a suggestion no need to take it into consideration this was fairly an observation.

Assalaam Alaikum Morderators,

I have been involved in children's education for the past forty years. So far, I have written five books in English for Muslim children. Inshallah, I am hoping that these will be regarded as a 'sadaqa jariaah' by Allah SWT as I do not get paid for them.

My question is, am I allowed to tell the readers about them?

I would appreciate your response.

Asslam o Alaikum

I have a dream. I saw that one of my aunts has died (she has already died in 2003). His funereal is ready and I am not in ablution to offer her funereal prayer (janaza). Suddenly I saw a water tab with a wall. I went to that tab but before me a boy came for using tab he opened the tab and start using it. He saw me and left the washing incomplete and goes to a washroom and start washing.

I completed the ablution from that water tap and went to the place where funereal was in progress. One of my cousins (her son) has to recite the Holy Quran but he forgets some verses and the funereal was postponed. The funereal was postponed till the completion of recitation.

I saw smoke and for cooking of food. I asked my cousin (her daughter) who is incurring the expenses for meal for guests who are there for funereal. She replied my uncle (he can be my father).

Please tell me the interpretation.

Can anyone verify the following address & person in Ghana ? If this case is genuine, so we can proceed to help them with the Quran Books. The request to verify is because; I don't want some one to do a business in the name of Islam.

(Like – we send them the Quran copies & they are selling it over there pocketing the money for themselves. This kind of request I have seen before.)

Please anyone in Ghana or nearby or using his/her contacts can confirm / verify this urgently.

Just a quick e-mail to ask you whether you have received the DUA FOR A HOUSE IN PARADISE which I am currently distributing. If you haven't, please confirm & I will e-mail it to you. More than 1,500 people, Masha'Allah, have requested Islamic literature from me in the last year or so, and you are sure to receive this Dua, Insha'Allah, if you respond.
