Dear Dr. Umar,
Assalam Alaikum,

Hope this mail finds you well. I had the below dream and I wanted to ask you of it. Please advice.

My Dream (At night time, between 3 – 4am).

I saw that there are 2 persons who are bringing a piece of land and showing me the grave of Hazrat Ali. But then they bring another piece of land and says that this is Hazrat Ali's grave. Then they say no and brings another piece of land and shows me a grave (not higher then the earth level) and says this is Hazrat Ali's grave. Hazrat Ali's turban (large and bit heavy) was kept on top of the grave. I cannot remember but they said that this grave is in Mauritania , Morocco or Maghrib but the name started with M. I then took the turban and placed it on my head with the permission of those two persons. I then took a snap of myself from my mobile as I was very happy wearing the turban of Hazrat Ali. Then I woke up and it was a little time left for the Fajr Azan. Please advice about this dream. I will be very thankful to you.

Thanks a lot for your reply and I am so happy for my dream. I went to perform Umrah in the last 10 days of Ramadan and there I prayed to Allah that I may see several Prophets and the 4 Khalifa's in my dreams. I am so thankful to you and My Allah as well.

I have just 2 more dreams please (Last from my end):

1 - I saw this dream when I was on a 18days Tableek outing and I was sleeping at night in the Masjid.

I saw in my dream that I entered one mosque and I saw groups of 2 peoples each all over the mosque (2 people sitting together in groups away from each other and discussing something). As I entered the mosque, on my left hand side I saw a grave of our last prophet which was not higher than the earth's level.

What does this dream mean as I called one of our scholars and he said that it means that I will be having one Hajj Insha-Allah in my life time.

2 – My sister saw a strange dream that 2 people were digging a big hole and keeping a lot of pots in it. Each pot was having a head of a human and was alive. Means all those pots carrying heads of humans were kept by these 2 people inside the big hole which they dug. Then these 2 people took mud and were putting or massaging on all the heads / faces in the pots getting ready to burry them.

I will really be thankful and appreciate your reply. Sorry for disturbing you Sir. Thanks a lot.

Asalam o Alaikum

i have read in your website about dreams interpretation.

I really need to know about some of my dreams:

1) I usually saw true dreams, i mean that watever i saw in my dreams , the next day or after 2-3 days , it would happen

2) I need to know about plane crash, I have been seen this dream for 2-3 years, that I was watching a airplane and it crashed. Or sometimes i saw the airplane was flying very low, and I was worried it might be hit any building or anything , in dream it wasnt happen, but the plane crashed. and sometimes the plane fell down. i saw this kind of dreams serveral times and its very clear to me also.

I never got any injiury while i saw the plane fell down or crashed.

THE PLEASURES OF SEEKING KNOWLEDGE

Dr. Ibrahim B. Syed

The rise of Muslims to the zenith of civilization in a period of four decades was based on Islam's emphasis on learning. This is obvious when one takes a look at the Quran and the traditions of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) which are filled with references to learning, education, observation, and the use of reason.

The very first verse of the Quran revealed to the Prophet of Islam on the night of 27th of Ramadan in 611 AD reads:

"Recite: In the name of the Lord who created man from a clot. Recite: And thy Lord is the Most Generous Who taught by the pen, taught man that which he knew not." (Quran, 96:1-5).

"Are those who have knowledge and those who have no knowledge alike? Only the men understanding are mindful." (Quran, 39.9).

The Quran encourages people towards scientific research:

"And whoso brings the truth and believes therein such are the dutiful." (Quran, 39:33).

Every Muslim man's and every Muslim woman's prayer should be:

"My Lord! Enrich me with knowledge.." (Quran, 20:114).

The pursuit of knowledge and the use of reason, based on sense and observation is made obligatory on all believers.

The following traditions of the Prophet (PBUH) supplement the foregoing teachings of the Quran in the following way:

"Seek knowledge" even though it be in China"

"The acquisition of knowledge is compulsory for every Muslim, whether male or female."

"The ink of the scholar is more sacred than the blood of the martyr."

"Seek knowledge from the cradle to the grave"

"God has revealed to me, 'Whoever walks in the pursuit of knowledge I facilitate for him the way to heaven.'"

"The best form of worship is the pursuit of knowledge."

Scholars should endeavor to spread knowledge and provide education to people who have been deprived of it. For, where knowledge is hidden it disappears."

Some one asked the Prophet (PBUH): "Who is the biggest scholar?" He replied: "He who is constantly trying to learn from others, for a scholar is ever hungry for more knowledge."

"Seek knowledge and wisdom, or whatever the vessel from which it flows, you will never be the loser."

"Contemplating deeply for one hour (with sincerity) is better than 70 years of (mechanical) worship."

"To listen to the words of the learned and to instill unto others the lessons of science is better than religious exercises."

"Acquire knowledge: it enables its possessor to distinguish right from the wrong, it lights the way to heaven; it is our friend in the desert, our society in solitude, our friend in the desert, our society in solitude, our companion when friendless – it guides us to happiness; it sustains us in misery; it is an ornament among friends and an armor against enemies."

The Islamic Empire for more than 1,000 years remained the most advanced civilization in the world. The main reasons for this was that Islam stressed the importance and respect of learning, forbade destruction, cultivated a respect for authority, discipline, and tolerance for other religions. The teachings of the Quran and Sunnah inspired many Muslims to their accomplishments in science and medicine.

By the tenth century their zeal and enthusiasms for learning resulted in all essential Greek medical and scientific writings being translated into Arabic in Damascus, Cairo and Baghdad. Arabic became the international language of learning and diplomacy. The center of scientific knowledge and activity shifted eastward, and Baghdad emerged as the capital of the scientific world. The Muslims became scientific innovators with originality and productivity.

For example Islamic medicine is one of the most famous and best known facets of Islamic civilization in which the Muslims excelled. The Muslims were the great torchbearers of International Scientific research. Some of the best and most eloquent praises of science came from the pens of Muslim scientists who considered their work to be acts of worship. The same motives led to the establishment of Al-Azhar (800 AD) the first university in the world. They hit the 'source ball of knowledge' over the fence to Europe. In the words of Camphell, "The European medical system is Arabian not only in origin but also in its structure. The Arabs are the intellectual forbearers of the Europeans."

Learning is a natural pleasure. This pleasure is inborn and instinctive. The pleasure of learning is one of the essential pleasures of the human race. Without learning, survival itself is threatened.

The process of learning starts right after birth. It is true that babies who can barely talk investigate problems with all the zeal and excitement of explorers, make discoveries with the passion and absorption of dedicated scientists. At the end of each successful investigation, one can see on the tiny face an expression of innocent and pure heartfelt pleasure. The process of physical growth stops when a boy or girl reaches puberty, that is with the on set of menses in the girls and with the change in the voice and growth of moustache and beard in boys. After puberty it is impossible to increase the height both in boys and girls.

On the other hand the mental faculties grow from birth until death. At some point in our lifetime, the physical body becomes sick or ill and gradually dies; even the emotions become duller. But the mind continues to live, and even grows more lively and active, enjoys itself more, works and plays with more expansion and delight. I have seen grandparents obtaining Bachelors, Masters and Ph.D degrees at the ages of 70, 80 or 90..

There are many examples in the history of Art, Music and Science, of both men and women who significantly contributed and lead mentally productive lives till their ripe old ages. Learning extends our lives into new dimensions. It is cumulative. Instead of diminishing in time, like health and strength, its dividends go on increasing, provided one continues to learn throughout life and integrate the thoughts and make learning harmonious. One should make it a point to learn at least one piece of new information each day.

The pleasure of learning is not confined to learning from textbooks, which are too often tedious. But it does include learning from books, magazines (periodicals) , newspapers, movies, television, radio and traveling.

When you stand in a big library in front of thousands of books do not think they are lumps of lifeless paper, but they are minds alive on the shelves. Each has its own voice, which is as inaudible as the radiobroadcast waves falling directly on ears. Just as one switches on the radio to listen, similarly a person needs to open a book to hear the voice far distant in time and space. One can hear the voice speaking, mind to mind. And heart to heart. Reading of books gives you two different delights. One is the pleasure of understanding the unknown and the unexpected. The other pleasure is of deepening one's knowledge of a specified field.

Apart from books, learning means keeping the mind open and active to receive all kinds of experience. As pointed out earlier there is great emphasis on learning and seeking knowledge in Islam. The Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) ordered Muslims to be active in their search for learning, beyond oceans and continents if necessary. "Seek knowledge even in China", he said. Learning also means learning to practice ones own professional skills – that of a physician, engineer, musician or craftsman.

Crafts and hobbies lead you into fresh fields of enjoyment and give you relaxation and activity without tension. One should know that tension is the prime cause of heart attacks, ulcers, hypertension, and most of the human diseases.

Traveling is an important activity in the pleasures of learning. There are many examples of exceptionally informed people who never read books and newspapers, but acquire knowledge through traveling. One should travel with an open mind, an alert eye and a wish to understand other people and other places.

A saying of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) is: With knowledge man rises to the heights of goodness and to a noble position, associated with sovereigns in this world, and attains the perfection of happiness in the next.

It is fitting here to mention the story of Diogenes, the great Greek philosopher who lived during the time of Alexander the Great. Diogenes was a very learned man who shunned both power and wealth. He was known to have wandered around searching for an honest man carrying a lantern during day and night. He gave up everything he possessed, except a coconut shell for drinking water. One day he saw a man drinking water forming a cup with his hand.. After seeking this Diogenes threw away his last possession, the coconut shell.

The name of Diogenes spread throughout Greece. Alexander the Great heard about Diogenes and one day decided to see him. Mounted on horseback, Alexander the Great went to Diogenes who was sitting on the ground. Alexander said, "Oh Diogenes, I have heard a great deal about you and your life. I am very much impressed by your life and it is my earnest desire to help you in whatever way I can. Please let me know your desires so that I can fulfill them". To which Diogenes replied "Your Excellency my only request is that you get aside and allow the sun's rays to fall on my body." Alexander the Great was deeply moved by Diogenes's reply and said "If I were not Alexander the Great. I would be Diogenes." Now the point I want to make here is that Diogenes never went to Alexander the Great, but that Alexander the Great came to Diogenes for he was such a learned philosopher.

There are many people in this world who have played themselves to death. Nobody ever died because of thinking or learning. People who avoid learning or abandon it, find no joy in life, find that life is dry. No learner has ever run short of subjects to explore. The pleasures of learning lead to happiness. One can live a long, healthy and rewarding life by attaining and preserving the happiness of learning. Learning is everyone's birthright. Everyone – young or old, rich or poor, male or female, has access to learning. Exercise your birthright. Remember what you have learned cannot be taken away by others.

Assalamwalaikum,

I read that you give interpretations about dreams.

I have had this persistant dream from the past 7-8 years in which im in a very dark place (I don't know which place) and running away from something which is trying to catch me.I have never seen what is tryin to catch me...i dont know whether its just a feeling or there is something really behind me.I keep running and try to scream but am unable to...my voice dissapears.Simultaneously while im watching this dream..im actually trying to scream in real and my sister gets disturbed of it.

Please tell me what this dream means and if there is any way to stop it from reoccurring.

Thank you in advance

Ms. Humaira Ahmed.

Respected Dr Umer Sahib

I really appreciate your prompt reply and thank you so much for your help . I was looking for appropriate person and seeking contacts to help me in this respect and your kind guidance in this respect would be very helpful.

Prior to narrate my dream, I would like to let u know briefly about our prevailing circumstances. Actually few months back my wife is diagnosed with cervix Carcinoma (Cancer) , Doctors suggested Radiation therapy but my wife was not willing for it therefore sought alternative therapy from one of Homeopathic Doctor and his therapy remained continued till this dream and now discontinued.

My Wife Dream (Earlier).

She saw that we are going to gather and passing through a place where that Homeopathic Doctor's clinic exists (though that location seems different than his true clinic which is in his house in fact) so I am asking my wife to stand here let see if doctor is here to say salaam to him. I took step forward and upon my inquiry if doctor is there someone informed me that Doctor sahib is passed away! to hear so I silently cry and re-informed to my wife while coming back to her.

My Dream (Few days Later):

I can see two plumbing workers doing their job on galvanized pipes and I am just talking with them regarding their work (Which I do not remember, What I spoke to them exactly) both of them are standing just near to our apartment building, immediately I saw my wife coming out and crying loud .I asked her the reason and she informed me that her Doctor is passed away , now who will give her medicine and some how I can see rear side of photo frame perhaps she has taking photo of doctor too.

Summary:

In the both of dreams significance appears a death of Doctor who is treating my wife and the dream is seen both of us in way that when she saw I was crying and when I saw she was crying.

Dr Sahib I would be grateful if You please help in this respect.

Assalamwalikum Dr.Umar,

Thank you for your email.I understand that I have been having misguidance in my life,maybe your are right.There is something else on which i need interpretation.

I have loved a guy from the past 8 years..right now I am 23 yrs old.When i got into the relationship I did not know it is haraam..as I thought just having sexual intercosed with the opposite sex is haraam.I loved him truely and always wanted to marry him.Otherwise I consider myself to be a good muslim..following the 5 pillars of islam.From the past 1 year I started learning about religion...and found out that hijab is compulsory and started following it.Also since now I am in marrigable age,the guy who I have loved wants to perform nikah with me.I did ishtiqara once..i saw a dream in which both of us are very happy..v r going to the movies..v are eating out..and are happy with each other...i thought of it to be as yes...later things started getting bad..his behaviour towards me started changing..though he says he loves me n intends to marry me..he speaks very rudely to me and doesnt appreciate me.I still love him.I did ishtiqara again and saw a completely opposite dream.I dreamt that we are in a counselling meet.There is a large crowd.The counsellor is a christian.He points out to the guy I love and says "He is the most selfish person in the crowd" and then he points at me and says "and the girl sitting next to him is the biggest idiot sitting here".I am utterly confused and dont know what to do.I still love him..but dunno if this marriage is good for my deen and duniya.Kindly guide me.

Thanking you

Ms. Humaira Ahmed.

Thanks for contacting me. Noor in a dream means guidance but darkness means misguidance. I think there's some sort of trouble in your life and it's been stressing you out. You can read the Duas and use the Taweez in the PRACTICAL ISLAMIC ADVICE section of my Site www.dr-umar-azam.com

Assalamwalaikum,

I read that you give interpretations about dreams.

I have had this persistant dream from the past 7-8 years in which im in a very dark place (I don't know which place) and running away from something which is trying to catch me.I have never seen what is tryin to catch me...i dont know whether its just a feeling or there is something really behind me.I keep running and try to scream but am unable to...my voice dissapears.Simultaneously while im watching this dream..im actually trying to scream in real and my sister gets disturbed of it.

Please tell me what this dream means and if there is any way to stop it from reoccurring.

Thank you in advance

Ms. Humaira Ahmed.

Dear Dr Umar
Assalam o Alaikum

thanks for asking for the feed back

The mails you send are really nice

1. i m sorry i cant answer the 1st question as i dont keep the mails in my inbox coz of low mail quota.
2. i ve learnt many things from your mails, like Increase in my knowledge, and specially i also use to implement in my practical life coz without that, it would not be effective
3. Mails were nice, kindly keep sending. it is also sadqa-e-jaria. .

JazakAllah.. ..

Assalamu Alaykum & Eid Mubarak!

This is Dr Azam, Author, from Manchester, UK. I would be grateful if you could spare some time to read the attached SELECTED ISLAMIC CORRESPONDENCE and then give your comments by return e-mail. I look forward to replies from 100 people and you are one of these hundred. Please answer these questions:

1. Which letters did you find interesting?
2. Did you learn anything from these letters? If so, what?
3. Other remarks of your own.

You can forward this Attachment to family/friends, to others to add to blogs, websites etc and, of course, use it yourself.

Jazakum Allah Khairan

Subject: [MasjidNabwi] Urdu typing help about Quran

Dears

Assalam-u-Alaikum

Hope you are fine and in the best of health and faith.

Could you please do me a favour?

I have done my research on the topics of the Holy Quran and I have launched a website www.quranictopics.com and present the verses of the Holy Quran on different topics which answer many questions clearing the concepts of the human beings about the most important issues and truths related to our life.

I am presenting these verses with Urdu and English Translations. My problem is that I don't know Urdu typing and this is why it takes a long time to prepare the pages for different topics to upload on the site. I am doing this only to please Allah and to convey his messages to the humanity. If anyone can help me and provide me the Urdu Translation of the verses on different topics (I can send you the verses) in MsWord File I will be really grateful and inshallah he/she will be rewarded by Allah.

You can help me in preparing only one topic which will be uploaded on this site and just imagine how many people can visit it and the reward for you from Allah.....?

Believe me this is a great work for Allah only and it can reward us more than we can imagine.

It will take my 5-10 years to complete my work if I work alone but if I find someone who can help me I can complete it in a short time.

Looking forward to a positive response from any of "IBAD-UR-RAHMAN"

Regards

A brother in Islam
