I recived your message but sorry to say I do not have a computer to call my own.I just manage to pay for a browse when ever Allah gave me.

Dr. I together with my fellow muslim brothers here in university finished some talk on current challanges we are facing within and out side our environment.Then I feel to my self having you as a muslim brother to make you known of the codition.

sisters in our university are been be frind by non muslims majority of them,why?Because the brothers are not having money to take care of them when they marry them.you know nigeria employment,scholarship and care are not points of concern to our govermnt.Then because of that shall we keep our eyes to cotinue watching that to happen?The rich men here majority of them are not arms givers to sustain the living of ther children.If you can see how muslims are schooling here is pittiful.A student doing 1-0-1 or 0-0-1(i.e eat in the morning forget afternoon then in the night or forget morning and afternoon then eat in the night) forget what may be the foot we eat.Most of us are now affected by ulcer.Dr. we need the attention of muslim brothers around you this is getting serious.

Like me now we are 30 children of our father and non of this 30 is on his feet to start helping our 75yr father,becouse I am 3rd to be a graduate in our house in sha Allah,and not properly well.Dr time factor,but I have alot to tell you.

Dear All,

There happens such a case in Azerbaijan, Baku that lion living in Zoo is praising ALLAH and calling HIS NAME aloud at the time of pray (NAMAZ). He turns to KAABA and starts praising ALLAH. It is a unique scene. You should see it.

It is the best example for outrages to make sure of power of ALLAH which is undoubtful of course, and it will strengthen believe in ISLAM.

I attach video file of it with this e-mail. Could you please also help me to place this file on appropriate websites for other lovers of ISLAM and pass it on to as many people as you know.

Salaam Dr Umar, appologies that the web page isn't identical to your word document. This has to do with the different formats of the two documents. One is a Microsoft word document and the other is a HTML file, so when the document is being converted from one format into another, some of the formatting becomes automatically lost or altered. This particularly happens when the document has extensive formatting (background colours, different font sizes, different font types, pasted images, etc).

I will run through the code and try to sort out all the bugs one element at a time. When I have done this I'll be back in touch.

Kind regards,

Dear Dr Umar Azam,

on the face of it the British Library does not appear to be a suitable place for your papers as the subject matter does not fall within the collecting policy of the Department of Manuscripts.

Yours sincerely,
