jazak ALLAH for sending

yes its masha ALLAH good work

but avoid the use of so many colours

it is easy to read but instead of using hightlight colors use some light colored backgrounds.

you can publish it in book form too

and how about also making it in acrobat reader format too!

In our to promote,well for this reason you can advertise and also send in some islamic groups

i send this earlier in islam4all and in a few other groups.

but try to send where ever its possible

jazak ALLAH

as salam u alaykum

In the meantime, please send me your comments on this work; here are a few points you could consider:

a] Is the work easy to read?

b] How can the work be useful?

c] How can it be improved?

d] How can it be promoted?

Hi All,

Salaam..

I've been to a great website known as Islamworld.. the URL of which is mentioned below,

<http://www.freewebs.com/islamworld>

I would highly recommend this site to you as it has so much to offer to all our muslim companions. I am sure that you are going to really benefit from the materials this site has to offer. Just give it a try and look at the images, softwares, audio & video, prayers which are very beneficial.

Also, if you have any islamic material to offer which will benefit us please mail it to the author in the 'contact us' part of the site.

And do remember to fill in the 'GUEST BOOK'.

See the wonders of Islam through this medium called 'Internet'.

Please pass on this message to your Islamic Companions and earn virtue. Any comments/suggestions are highly appreciated on the site.

The Youth Today!

Most of us, be of any age have forgotten the values of our 'MIGHTY' religion somewhere or the other. We can send SMS messages or forward mails but not search for beneficial info on the web for Islam and pass it on to others to benefit, we don't have time to get up early morning and pray but if it is an important mail we might get up to watch it or we would not remember to miss an important serial that we regularly watch but would definitely take chance with our Salaat's. Remember the wise one is who does everything in this world to prepare himself/herself for the next world - Hereafter!

Watching serials, forwarding junk mails etc would not help in the next world, an act as small as removing a pebble from the way would earn you virute and add on for you for the Hereafter!
