I got my download of your "Prayers in Islam". For reverts and other Muslims who want to attain more knowledge, this is a good reference for them. As an English teacher or major, I would make improvements on your presentation. There are too many highlights and everything is in ALL CAPS (unless you are doing this for those who are dyslexic, this format is too overwhelming). Please don't take it personally. I am a sister to you.

I have been asked by one of our local masjids to format a lecture series for them. I am attaching the flyer I recently sent or handed out locally. Of course, we will start out on the life of the Prophet (S), etc. I would appreciate any suggestions; and if possible, invite you to come and make any presentations, Inshaallah. Please contact Dr. Abdullah, if interested, Inshaallah.

Janab Dr. Umar Azam Sahib,

I hope you are doing well. I apologize for my late reply, I was on the road most of the time and did not get a chance to get back to you sooner.

Since I had promised that I will give you my comments therefore I did visit almost all of your web site. Mashaallah you have worked very hard on it and it has wealth of knowledge, information and advice provided for the reader.

I live in USA and we are much newer Muslim community here than Muslim community in England. we are experiencing issues related to 1st, 2nd and now 3rd generation problems for Muslims growing up in the west. Even though all of us need guidance and knowledge, but I am very happy to know that you started this web site with younger generation in mind, as you state ,

"Although this Site was originally made available for the dissemination of religious knowledge to the younger generation of Muslims, [as well as to those who are older!], it has been of interest to non Muslims as well as Muslims so far - and this has been an unexpected benefit.'

We need to keep on developing practical solutions for the practical daily problems facing muslim youth and muslim families in this constantly changing world . May Allah bless you for all your efforts.

Best Regards

Shukran for sending me the 'prayers in islam' booklet.

May Allah grant you barakat and strength to continue on the straight path and enlighten others too.

I have not yet had a chance to go through the whole booklet but there are a few points that i noted.....1 or 2 spelling errors and spaces , A good thing is the highlighting and using of alike colours for the translations and transliterations.

InshaAllah ill go through it at length and get back to you with my comments.

It is much appreciated and Shukran once again.
