

ISLAMIC DREAMS Q & A

Vol. 1

Compiled by: DR UMAR AZAM BA PHD FRSA FRSSA

Manchester, UK

Why have I made this compilation? And what can be said about the content?

A] It is educational: it contains facts and makes you want to find out more about dreams and what they mean.

B] It is interesting. Are any of the dreams here similar to ones you have experienced?

C] This will be historical material in the future. I will be working backwards in these Volumes – presenting dreams which are older and older.

D] The field of 'dreams and Islam' is rare. There is not as much source material on it when compared to the 'history' of Islam.

E] People have written to ask me the meanings of their own dreams after reading mine on:

www.dr-umar-azam.com

F] The form referred to is the 'Get a Dream Interpreted' section on my other site:

www.webs.com/drumarazam

Notes

(i) Personal details i.e. names and e-mail addresses may have been altered.

(ii) To compile 10 Volumes or so of Islamic Dreams Question & Answer Papers is going to be a challenging project and will take a while.

(iii) In the meantime, please let me have your comments on this Paper by email at:

Assalamu Alaykum, Samiya Khan

Thank you v. much for relating your very interesting dream in full.

After reading it, I get the impression that you are a kind and caring person at heart. Because you do good to others, Allah does, and will, give you good in this world and the next, Insha'Allah. And Allah will continue to save you from calamities e.g. the car accident.

I very much hope and pray that you get a pious son with the Blessing of Allah Most High. I don't, though, understand the part of your dream where he was like an ugly aggressive boy , who was aggressive, and you then adopted him and changed him to a holy person.

Perhaps your son will very naughty in his childhood and you will shape his character so that he becomes holy. The part of the dream about his making food from heaven appear for so many people is truly an action of KARAMAT [miracles] in the same manner of the saints in our Islami mazab e.g. SHAMUS [R.A.], for whom no-one would cook a piece of meat and he made the sun come really close and roast it for him.

Thanks for communicating with me . May Allah Almighty give you health and happiness, success and salvation. Ameen.

Dr Umar

Assalamu Alaykum,

Thank you for filling in the GET A DREAM INTERPRETED form on my Site www.freewebs.com/drumarazam , Fatheha.

I'll try to give you an interpretation based on the work of IBN SIREEN R.A. in his book DREAMS AND INTERPRETATIONS [by the way, this book is on sale in Rolex Asian Bookshop, Wilmslow Road, Manchester for about #3].

Death in a dream signifies the end of a phase in your life. You yearn for the happy days of your primary school and the real friendships of those days. So many people from your childhood are no longer a part of your life, and you wish they were [symbolised by lots of dead people]. You have troubles in your life when the days now are compared with your past ['west' side]. You are besieged by a number of difficulties in you life but you will be successful in overcoming these challenges with the support of you family and close friends [defeat of people killing other people].

Please see my works PRACTCAL ISLAMIC ADVICE and PRAYERS IN ISLAM both on my Site [www.dr-umar-azam.com ] and read the Duas that these works contain. Insha'Allah, you will start getting religious, and sweet, dreams.

Your dream could either mean that you need to be honest in some way to the two persons seen in your dream, who are causing you some grief i.e. your father/husband.

Or it could mean that you will get some benefit through them.

Salam, Sadia

I think this dream of yours may be interpreted literally; it is telling you that you do not agree with the rest of your family in some way. But you are correct and they are wrong: if you say men praying, that is confirmation that you are rightly guided. I would say be patient with your family. It could be that Allah is testing you in some way and if you are rude to your family, disrespectful etc., the situation may well result in Allah's displeasure with you. Be kind to your family and try to make them see what it is that they are doing wrong.

Wa laikum salam, Dana

First of all, I'm v. sorry to learn of your terrifying dream. Here are some interpretations for your unpleasant dream:

Islamic Dream Interpretation Dictionary: Dreams

Interpretation Dictionary - Demons

Demons/Devil

Devil

Basic Meaning - A fear of those repressed contents of the unconscious that are, when acknowledged the very forces that could bestow a harmonious and balanced life.

(1) The Satan of Jewish - Christian - Islamic tradition was originally a horned fertility god, a personification of the fertilizing power of Nature {the tradition of God is separate from Nature}. In psychological terms, a fertilizing agent is something within the psyche that can inaugurate a new phase in the individual's development.

(2) The evil connotations of the devil figure may reflect the dreamer's fear of those repressed contents of the unconscious that are, in fact, the very forces that - if mobilized and utilized - could bestow a new and fuller life. What we repress is invariably something that had great value for us but on some occasion in the past gave rise to guilt-feelings or a fear of punishment. It is our fears that invest the unconscious with the fearsome characteristics of a dark underworld inhabited by evil monsters. In reality, the unconscious contains all the energy and wisdom we need for healing and wholeness.

It might be said that our fundamental human task is the conversion of the devil within ourselves, that is, converting negatively charged {dissident, destructive} psychic forces into positively charged {life-enhancing and unifying} powers. But you won't convert the devil with brute force, only with love. The negatively charged psychic forces are the ones you neglect and despise or fear. They become positively charged when you acknowledge them and integrate them into your conscious life. If we do not recognize the "devil" within ourselves, we shall project him onto others and thereby give more scope for hatred and destruction {the real devil!} in the world.

{3} In certain contexts - if, for example, he has horns or is sexually involved with naked women - the devil may be a sexual symbol. If sexuality is repressed in such a guise in a woman's dream, it is possibly because she has a fear of sexual relations. In a man's dream the indication might be that he has a guilt-ridden attitude towards his own sexuality {which Freud might trace back to anxiety arising out of the normal male infant's erotic feelings for his mother}.

Demons

Demons in dreams probably represent parts of your unconscious mind that have been repressed and neglected and are now threatening to disrupt or mutilate the psyche. They should be approached lovingly, given attention and integrated into your conscious life. This will bring about their "conversion": They will cease to threaten and will contribute their vital energies to the enhancement of the self.

Self-knowledge - knowing what we are carrying around with us in our unconscious - is the only sure defence against what in ancient times was called demonic possession, which in psychological terms means the conscious ego being taken over by unconscious forces {obsessive fear or anger, or whatever}.

Reference: Eric Ackroyd

(Source: Myths - Dreams - Symbols)

The problem in your life seems to be that you may be feeling guilty or afraid of some incident or situation, so you must turn to Allah Ta'lah for help i.e. by reading duas and doing dhikr. Allah is All-Powerful; no demon can harm you if Allah forbids such a thing. Remember this.

Assalamu Alaikum,

Thank you for your question.

Your dreams are telling you that your parents and brother hate certain people perhaps out of envy etc. so you should tell them to exude goodwill to others. If they don't agree in the dream, you need to make them realise in real life the error of their unIslamic ways. I am giving you this advice based on the information that you have provided me with.

Killing Dream Meaning

Psychological Meaning: If you murder someone in your dream you are expressing your hatred or envy towards the person. Sometimes the person being killed can represent an aspect of your own nature that you hate. For example, if a man dreams of killing a woman it may show how he rejects the feminine side of his nature. Similarly, if a woman dreams of killing a man she may be rejecting her masculine side. To dream of killing animals indicates repression your instinctive nature.

Assalamu Alaikum, SadiaThank you for filling in the GET A DREAM INTERPRETED form on my Site:

www.freewebs.com/drumarazam

I'm pleased to inform you that your dreams of Morwi, teaching Quran, Salam, Mithai, Wazuu and reading Quran all mean that you have, or will have in the future, knowledge of, and wisdom in, our religion. So you are rightly guided in matters concerning Islam. Also, Insha'Allah, you will get more wealthy in the future. I've used the book DREAMS AND INTERPRETATIONS by IBN SIREEN [R.A.] to interpret your dream symbols and here are two of the interpretations for your information:Quran

The Quran is a symbol of knowledge and wisdom. P. 107

Mithai

Everything extracted from honey or sugar is a symbol of wealth.

P.108May Allah give you happiness and success in both the worlds. Ameen.

My other two brothers are greedy). There was no deadbody in dream but I was crying with loud voice with deeply grieved heart. I was feeling pitty for his wife and children.

Part II: I was crying at the grave of my mother (she is a widow and brought up all her nine children, six daughters and three sons successfully by stitching clothes. father died in 1984). Her grave was next to my father's grave and I was recalling the days when she use to do extraordinary hard work to earn money to spend on our education. Salam, Shagufta

Thanks for filling in my GET A DREAM INTERPRETED section on one of my Freewebs Sites.

I have read your dreams and wish to make the point that seeing a person die in a dream does not necessarily mean that that person is really going to die soon.

In fact, Ibn Sireen [R.A.] interprets a sad dream as meaning happiness and vice-versa. But death generally means that your phase of dealing with the person seen as dying will end i.e. die.

So your brother may change towards you. Your relationship with your Mum may, similarly, become different to what it was before. Such changes may be painful for you, as you were sorrowful in the dream and also had a heavy heart at work.

But Allah does work in mysterious ways; an unhappy change in circumstances today may well prove to be good later on in life.

The secret is to keep asking Allah Most High to make, and keep, your life happy. See PRAYERS IN ISLAM on:

www.dr-umar-azam.com

06 - What did you dream? = Be-ism Allah hir Rahman nir Rahim wa salat Ó salaam alaa Rasool-e hil karim!.

Assalam O' Aleykum Dr. Umar and thanks for your time and efforts.

"I found myself standing right in front (facing) of a big entrance (gate) of a formidable mosque through which I could see the place of qayaam & sajda of Imam (mimber o' mehrab) from where the prayer is led in a congregation. There was a feeling as if someone (invisible) was also standing with me. Please remember that I only saw reduced / partial portion of the mosque i.e. entrance and through it the "Imam's place". The rest of the mosque was NOT shown!

Next to it - on its right - were four (04) smaller mosques (their portions / entrances / glimpses) in a row and behind me there were three (03) smaller mosques / portions / entrances. I believe it were a total of 7 if not 8 mosques.

Between me and the five (05) mosques, in front of me, was a road that was not like today's road rather it was just a passage on the neat ground.

Now I was facing / standing in front of the bigger most attractive mosque while a voice very clearly told me that it's Quba Mosque and advised me gently to offer two (02) Nawafil and recite some Ayats (ayats were not told).

While I was thinking about moving inside or towards the mosque to enter in it I saw a big Lion marching on the passage between me & the mosques from my left to right without noticing me (but obviously I was looking at him and was very much conscious of his presence but it wasn't posing any threat to me). When he reached exactly between me & the mosque (on the passage) he looked towards the mosque and then went charging on some of the people who were coming from my right (but mosque's left) towards the mosque. He attacked on one of them and I think he hurt him!

Now, at the same time I thought that I should get inside the mosque and something assured me that the Lion shall NEVER dare entering in the Quba mosque but I was a little precautionary naturally and I avoided offering nawafil at the entrance with a thought that the wild animal could attack from behind. So, I climbed up a tall stone just to keep an eye on the Lion's movement (who was disappeared some where or wasn't in my sight any more) and there I offered two nawafil but not at the entrance or inside Quba.

I woke up around half an hour before Fajr.

In my childhood I heard about Quba mosque and I never knew there were Saba-Masajid in Medina. (seven mosques).

I searched on internet and amazingly I found all of the visuals almost the same with little or fewer differences.

I was very happy that Masha Allah, Allah subhana wa tala showed me a great dream that shows His affection on me. I mentioned it to two religious stalwarts of the vicinity and they greeted me but they differed on the interpretation of Lion!.

1. First one said it was probably a Divine Security / Guard to such places shown to you in form of a Lion (representing power) they referred to some instances whereby Lions protected Islamic dignitaries (even Prophets (AS)) at times by the grace of Almighty Allah.

2. The second one took Lion as a hurdle towards my religious swift progress and prayed that may Allah remove this hurdle from my way. He also termed the dream very auspicious for me, alhamdulillah. However, I informed him that the Lion was apparently not posing any threat to me but obviously presence of a freely moving wild lion around could make any one overprecautious so this is what I did naturally thinking that during my nawafil it could (God forbidding) attack from behind in the worst case. However, it was a very strong feeling in my dream that this Lion will NOT enter in any of the mosques.

Dear Dr. Umar,

Please, I need both your comments and prayers on it ASAP - in details.

And I pray for your life, health, and success in hereafter as well.

Stay safe,

Warm regards,

Assalamo Alaykum wa Rahmat Allah.

Wa laikum salam, Br Haroon,

JazakAllah khair for your kind comments about my work on my Freewebs 1 Site.

After reading both of your dreams, my first thought was that, Masha'Allah, you are a Blessed person and Allah Most High is happy with you. This is evident from your seeing the 7 Mosques of Madinah and the Holy figures of Hazrat Usman [R.A.] and Umm-e-Kalsoom.

Seeing the old, dust road and the "their dresses that covered them from head / hair to toes (nothing visible) and one (01) male figure clad in medieval cloak even covering his head with a big (a man-high) wand / stick in his left hand that he was putting on ground regularly while moving ahead" I believe means that you are a proper Muslim, divinely guided to the true Islam.

Floating in the air means being correctly guided and attaining martyrdom [being shaheed] at the end of your life [and this is the quest of every true Muslim, including myself]!

Seeing the lions could also symbolize an enemy - meaning enmity of kafirs to Islam, or enmity of certain sects of Muslims towards each other.

[Interpretations based on IBN SIREEN'S [R.A.] DREAMS AND INTERPRETATIONS]

Many congratulations on your wonderful dream, dear brother-in-Islam, and you will, Insha'Allah, carry on this straight path right up to the time of death!

I have sent you the entire Holy Quran and Duas Attachments a few minutes ago in a separate Email.
