Subject: [www.AAAKINGDOM.com] Re: My Islamic Research

Assalamu Alaikum,

I am beginning to feel that a few of you really are helplessly deluded and genuinely do not understand the nature of my work on religious dreams.

I am making the point in my book DREAMS IN ISLAM that, if a person is righteous, then he or she can benefit from religious dreams which contain messages and guidance from Allah Most High.

And my research papers such as DREAMS OF REWARD IN PARADISE, DREAMS OF KNOWLEDGE AND SCHOLARSHIP and TRUE DREAMS all give examples of actual dreams, which I have myself experienced, to emphasise the point of religious dreams being messages from God.

Do you not think that this in-depth research is valuable because it is original? Not much Islamic research on 'dreams' has been done in the past; it is a rare field of study.

How on Earth can the study of Islamic dreams 'send the whole world into hell'? What are you on about? I have read the Prophet's [Pbuh] Farewell Speech a number of times in the past and, no doubt, it is crucial. But how can you then link this Speech to research into Islamic dreams? Where in the Speech does the Prohet [Pbuh] forbid the study of Islamic dreams or, indeed, Islamic scholarship?

Dr. Umar,

Wa Alaiykum Salaam Warahmatullaah.

I am very dissappointed with your insistance in sticking to your dreams (Hawaa).

If Islamic faith is to be based on your dreams (or "Hawaa") then you would have sent the whole world into hell. You need to know our Prophet Muhammad (Salla-Allaahu Alaiyhi Wa Sallam)'s Hajjatul-Widaa (The Farewell Pilgrimage) speech.

" O people! Listen to what I say. I do not know whether I will ever meet you at this place once again after this current year. It is unlawful for you to shed the blood of one another or take (unlawfully) the fortunes of one another. They are as unlawful, (Haram) as shedding blood on such a day as today and in such a month as this Haram month and in such a sanctified city as this sacred city (i.e. Makkah and the surrounding areas)."

"Behold! all practices of paganism and ignorance are now under my feet.The blood-revenge of the Days of Ignorance (pre-Islamic time) are remitted. The first claim on blood I abolish is that of Ibn Rabi'a bin Harith who was nursed in the tribe of Sa'd and whom Hudhail killed. Usury is forbidden, and I make a beginning by remitting the amount of interest which 'Abbas bin 'Abdul Muttalib has to receive. Verily, it is remitted entirely."

"O people! Fear Allâh concerning women. Verily you have taken them on the security of Allâh and have made their persons lawful unto you by Words of Allâh! It is incumbent upon them to honour their conjugal rights and, not to commit acts of impropriety which, if they do, you have authority to chastise them, yet not severely. If your wives refrain from impropriety and are faithful to you, clothe and feed them suitably."

"Verily, I have left amongst you the Book of Allâh and the Sunnah (Traditions) of His Messenger which if you hold fast, you shall never go astray."

"O people, I am not succeeded by a Prophet and you are not succeeded by any nation. So I recommend you to worship your Lord, to pray the five prayers, to fast Ramadan and to offer the Zakat (poor-due) of your provision willingly. I recommend you to do the pilgrimage to the Sacred House of your Lord and to obey those who are in charge of you then you will be awarded to enter the Paradise of your Lord."

"And if you were asked about me, what wanted you to say?"

They replied:

"We bear witness that you have conveyed the message and discharged your ministry."

He then raised his forefinger skywards and then moved it down towards people while saying:

"O Allâh, Bear witness."

He said that phrase thrice.

The one who repeated the Prophet's ﷺ statements loudly at 'Arafat was Rabi'a bin Omaiya bin Khalaf.

As soon as the Prophet ﷺ had accomplished delivering the speech, the following Qur'anic verse was revealed to him:

"This day I have perfected your religion for you, completed My Favour upon you, and have chosen for you Islam as your religion."

Upon hearing this verse 'Umar cried. "What makes you cry?" He was asked. His answer was: "Nothing succeeds perfection but imperfection. "

After reading the above do you still insist in distorting people in the true Islamic belief.

We all have good idea on your way of thinking and what you are up to....we are not that stupid !!!!. We are trying to tell you that you are wrong and should refrain from your false ideologies. Give yourself time to think and read more on Islam and DO NOT be ignorant to all the advices you are given.

I pray to Allaah to grant you Hidaaya.

Kind Regards,

Mehsen Alamoudi

RE: Interpreting Daydreams

To

Asalaamalicum Dr. Azam,

Thank you so much for responding to my e-mail so quickly. I really did not think that you would respond. I have always since I can remember dreamed of getting rich, and helping others. It deos not matter to me wheather they are muslim or non. I am really not sure if this is classified as a dream or having my head in the clouds.

My dream usually consists of either the lottery or getting a windfall. I dream of making homes for the poor. I want to send people who cannot afford to go to Hajj. I want to make homes for my family. I am 35 years old you would think by this age I would learn that these dream may never come true. This is very hard to accept for me.

The next three paragraphs are my sleep induced dreams.

A year ago I had a dream where my home was in the clouds. The only way up to it was by a ladder. I was climbing it but could not get into my own home. My eldest brother in-law finally helped me get into my own home. It is wierd that I had a dream with him when he is Pakistan.

In one dream I was out shopping (my favorite past time), the shops were white domes, and everthing was white. My grandfather that I saw back in 1986 was also there. My Grandfather had past away in 93. Anyway I am shopping, and there are beautiful things but I don't see anything I like.

This is the last and maybe the wierdest to my way of thinking, I am in a place like a Africa. I see baby elephants and children who are all dirty and maybe even nude. I feel as if I am there. I see kids riding on the elephant.

These dreams make no sense to me. The ones that I am awake for make even less sense to me. I really appreciate the time you have taken to read this e-mail. If you cannot make sense of it don't worry about it. The fact that you took some time out to response is very appreciated. Please don't put this on your website, I really feel like a fool for writing to you and bothering you with this.

Thank you

6 MIRACLES OF NABI (sallallahu alayhi wasallam)

1. The greatest miracle given to Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) was the Quraan-e-Kareem. It was a challenge to the Arabs of that time who prided themselves excessively in their grammatical eloquence. It will, remain until the Day of Qiyaamat. None would be able to construct , words of such excellence equal to even one aayat to the Holy Quraan.

2. On the occasion of the treaty of Hudaibiya, the Sahaba (radhiallahu anhum) were in the desert area and there was only one bowl of water available which was put in front of Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wa sallam) from which he had made wudhu. Thus only little water remained. The Sahaba (radhiallahu anhu) informed Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) regarding the shortage of water for both drinking and wudhu. Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) put his mubaarak hands into the bowl of water and from the fingers Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) water began to gush out like a spring. From that water 1,500 Sahaba (radhiallahu anhu) drank and made wudhu.

3. Once a villager remarked "How can we have Yaqeen and conviction in your Nubuwwat (Prophethood) ?" Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) replied, "From this date tree I would call forth this branch and it would come forth giving the shahaadat, testifying to my Prophethood. " Thus it happened that the branch came and Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) told it to return.

4. The moon was split in two by Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) with the sign of his finger.

5. In a very short time of the night Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) took the journey from Makkah to Baitul Makdis, and from there to all the skies, and then returned.

6. The Mubaarak perspiration of Nabi (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) was full of fragrance.

The Ulema have recorded up to 3000 miracles performed by Nabi-e-Kareem (sallallahu alayhi wasallam).

DU'A:

I also ask for Your protection for myself, my family, my friends and all those who send and receive this Du'a, from all forms of evil and calamities as well as Your protection to safeguard us all from punishment of the Kabr and safeguard and protect us from the punishment of Jahannam.

Ya Allah:

The door represents your father; lots of people represent the shame of your father in the community because of your actions [since you had this dream]. Shazad thought you two were married but you knew you weren't; this implies that the right thing to do is to get married or give up thinking about him, talking about him etc. to prevent your dad losing honour in the community.

the end part i think u have sed wrong because the door dream shazad had not me he saw the door and that he was saying where married
