Assalaam Alaykum,

Please do not trust Dr.Umar Azam. He writes funny things that have never been narrated in the authentic hadeeths. Whenever someone writes something about the Islamic religion, please demand evidence from the Quraan or Authentic Hadeeths. Do not follow people blindly.

Today, our religion is being targeted by many enemies. Some of them (like Dr. Umar Azam) pretend to be Muslims and are misguiding less knowledgeable Muslims by narrating nonsense.

Take Care of this man who puts drops of honey in the poison.

Dr. Umar,

I requested you to provide source for your last "Islamic email" about reciting dua and the list of benefits you listed for them. It has been a week and you have failed to give me any source for the "knowledge" you share with others. I didn't ask to be part of your mailing list in the first place. Please take me off your list and do not send any more nonsense as any knowledge without source provided is just mumbo jumbo made up.

39.63: Muhsin Khan: To Him belong the keys of the heavens and the earth. And those who disbelieve in the Ayat (proofs, evidences, verses, signs, revelations, etc.) of Allah, such are they who will be the losers.

12: Muhsin Khan: To Him belong the keys of the heavens and the earth, He enlarges provision for whom He wills, and straitens (it for whom He wills). Verily! He is the All-Knower of everything.

Yes, we see the ayah above and what they mean. Now how does that translate to....

If you read the MAQALID AS-SAMAWAT WAL ARD Dua daily, you will get the following:

1. All sins forgiven
2. No suffering in Hell Fire
3. Two Angels will guard you against sufferings & diseases
4. Treasure of Blessings
5. Reward of freeing 100 slaves
6. Blessings of reading ALL Allah's Revealed Books
7. A House in Paradise will be built for you
8. Marriage in Paradise
9. Crown of Honour given to you in Paradise
10. Seventy of your relatives will be forgiven

Where is the above information coming from? As far as we know, per hadith:

1. Saying shahada sincerely entails one to be forgiven all of one's sins
2. saying surah ihklas 10 times = a house build in paradise for you
3. becoming a Quran hafiz entails a crown of honor for your parents
4. being a shaheed in jihad gives you intercession rights for 70 people
5. everyone will marry in paradise no matter what, that is a given once you make it there.
6. and other things also are gained by doing other various ebadah mentioned in ahadeeth.

So how does saying the above ayahs = to the 10 "benefits" listed? Where is the tafsir of the ayahs to back that claim up?

Assalaamu 'alaykum

No one commented that those are not verses of the Qur-aan and that they are not good words, but the issue is regarding the claimed virtues which we need to know the source obtained from.

We understand and accept only when the virtues of deeds or adkhaar are either from the Qur-aan or Sunnah, and no human can attribute any virtues to any act of worship except The Messenger of Allaah (Swalla Allaahu 'alayhi wa aalihi wa sallam).

You mentioned the book but you failed to quote whether the wordings are Hadiyth or not. And if you say they are from 'Uthmaan (Radhiya Allaahu 'anhu), we shall require that you bring us your proof that anyone else can claim virtues of deeds besides Allaah and His Messenger (Swalla Allaahu 'alayhi wa aalihi wa sallam). We know in Hadiyth of Al-'Irbaadh bin Saariyah, the Prophet asked us to follow the Sunnah of the Khulafaa ar-Raashiduun Al-Mahdiyyin, but what they did and what we follow from them was according to the Prophet's (Swalla Allaahu 'alayhi wa aalihi wa sallam) way and they never mention any virtues except they heard or quote them from the Prophet (Swalla Allaahu 'alayhi wa aalihi wa sallam) himself.

Moreover, the book so called 'Kanzul-'Umaal' (The Treasure Of the Workers) is full of FABRICATED Ahaadiyth and invented tales. It is a not a book one should rely on at all. It is a book which SHIA rely on it most.

READ THIS:

The Book of Sulaym ibn Qays is a Hadith Collection, collected by Sulaym ibn Qays who entrusted it to Aban ibn Iyash.

According to the Shi'a, the book "has received endorsement from five Infallible Imams." The author researched and verified events before he penned them so that their authenticity is incontrovertible. The book was entrusted to only one person, Aban ibni abi Ayyash who was held to a solemn oath not to talk of the book during Sulaym's lifetime and that after his death he would give the book only to trustworthy Shi'a..."

READ WHAT SHIAS SAY ON THE BOOK:

The greatness and esteemed value of this book can be gauged by the hadith of Imam Ja'far Al-Sadiq a.s that whoever does not possess this book does not have anything from The Ahlul Bayt AS. This is a book that has received endorsement from five Infallible Imams. This is the first book of the Shi'a containing knowledge of Traditions, History, Theology and Commentary. The author was born in Kufa and came to Madinah but was not able to see The Prophet SAWW. However, he was a trustworthy companion to Five A'immah AS.

You also mentioned that the du'aa is from Sunni and Shi'a. We bring to your attention and awareness that we do not extract our knowledge of deen from Shi'as because they are not people whom we depend on as they are deviated from the right path, they have gone astray in their creed to the extent that they are insulting Sahabas and the Prophet (Swalla Allaahu 'alayhi wa aalihi wa sallam) 's wives and deny the Sunni books such as Al-Bukhaariy etc. etc. Thus, do not mention to us anything to do with Shi'as' because it's not related to our Islaam.

You have not brought to us any proof the authenticity of the du'aa you claimed to be of Sunnah, thus a Muslim is not suppose to depend on because the du'aa and its virtues remains to be a baatil (void).

We advise people to take their matters of deen from authentic and reliable sources.

Shukran.

Wa 'alaykum salaam,

More than 24 years ago I was given a copy of the Qasidah Ghathiyya with Idhn and told by a Naib of Qadri Tariqah to read it, Ganjul-Arsh & Darood Taj.

For all these years I have heard the same rants from people like these, especially when I tried to obtain the complete Riwayah for the Ganjul-Arsh. I was always told that its too long or it was a made up dua by scholars.

About 7 months ago I found it an obscure book classified by the sellers (company) as being Arabic Occult. So the truth is and to my amazement has been posted by

Shaykh Kabbani on his site about the so called obscure Knowledge which has been called all sorts of names, including and not least "magic."

I have been putting out feelers trying to find an audio to download of the Dua Hizbu as-Sayfi of Sayyidina Ali (RA) as well as the Qasm al-Barhatiyya (Ancient Oath)

and the Jaljalutiyyah Kubra audio ( I have this by Shaykh al-Buni in his book al-Manba usul-al-Hikmah.

Perhaps all these Najdi's should go to the Waqf Ikhlas webpage and read about themselves?

Salaam,

Hajji Muhammad

Assalaam Alaykum.

Dear friends in the www.AAA.Kingdom Groups.

After studying thoroughly the articles presented at this website by Dr. Umar Azzam and his supporters, it has now become clear to every sensible person that Dr. Umar Azzam is a SUFI (in fact a Naqshbandi) who are the enemies of Islam.

We shall struggle, together with my friends, to reveal the truth about the SUFIS and the Naqshbandis.

SHIRK IN THE NAQSHBANDI TAREEQAH

The present-day Naqshabandis are determined in their war against Islaam and the Muslims and seek to pull in unsuspecting and ignorant Muslims by their "populist" and cleverly devised approach.

source: Alwalaa'wa'lbaraa

Yesterday I was invited to visit the Naqshbandi homepage, because it's great, I was told. This caused me to take one of their articles and demonstrate once again the greatest Shirk that we can find in their writings.

The article, "Meded - Asking Support From Grandsheikh", which I include below, contains several jaahilee concepts, among which:

Du`aa to Allah to derive from the Grandsheikh (Ad-Daghistani) from his spiritual care even from the grave.

"We derive our spiritual power from his heart center."

"...the breaths of Allah's Saints give life to their followers, to their spiritual sons and daughters."

"...a real Grandsheikh always keeps a watchful eye on his followers" [even if passed away]

Claim that to stand firmly in the face of our enemies: the lower self, Shaytaan, vain desires and worldliness, "we need his support," and that "without such a strong support a person will be vanquished."

Their saying, "Therefore, we seek our Grandsheikh's support by saying: "Meded Ya Sayyidi", "Support, oh my Master." "You must call upon your Grandsheikh in such a manner when you are in need of support, then that support may reach you."

Their claim that guidance reaches to our hearts through the Saints.

Their saying, "you must look for the support of the Saints in a Universe in which you are totally weak."

This article is useful for explaining how some people fall in shirk in all aspects of Tauheed:

Shirk in Tauheed ur-Ruboobeeyah:

Their claim that the Grandsheikh can bring good fortune or remove calamities; he can govern the affairs of this world and he is believed to have power and influence besides Allaah, or that Allaah creates creations that can cause harm and benefit to His creatures. The Grandsheikh is one upon whom we are dependent for guidance and spiritual strength.

Shirk in Tauheed ul-`Ibaadah:

Directing one's acts of worship, such as du`aa (supplication), seeking help, tawakkul (trust and reliance), and hope for good fortune to other than Allaah.

Shirk in Tauheed ul-Asmaa'i was-Sifaat:

Attributing divine power to Allaah's creation. Attributing to man the power to keep a watchful eye on his followers, whether alive or dead, the power and ability of guiding people's hearts that belongs to Allah alone, and ability to answer prayers of Allaah's creation and provide them with aid.

Refutation from the Qur'aan:

Allaah says in the Qur'aan, "And who is more astray than one who calls besides Allaah, such as will not answer him till the Day of Resurrection; and who are (even) unaware of their calls to them? And when mankind gathered (on the Day of Resurrection), they (false deities) will become enemies for them and will deny their worshipping." (46:5-6)

"You Alone we worship and from You Alone we seek help." (1:5)

"Do they attribute to Allah those who created nothing but they themselves are created? No help can they give them, nor can they help themselves." (7:191-2)

"Those on whom you call besides Allaah are only slaves like yourselves." (7:194)

"Do not worship besides Allaah that which cannot help or harm you." (21:66)

"And those whom you invoke or call upon instead of Him, own not even a Qitmir (the thin membrane over the date-stone). If you invoke them, they hear not your call, and if they were to hear, they could not grant it to you. And on the Day of Resurrection, they will disown your worshipping them. And none can inform you like Him Who is the All-Knower." (35:13-14)

"And invoke not besides Allaah any that will neither profit you nor hurt you, but if (in case) you do so, you shall certainly be one of the Dhaalimoon. And if Allaah touches you with heart, there is none who can remove it but He; and if He intends any good for you, there is none who can repel His Favour which He causes it to reach whomsoever of His slaves He will. And He is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (16:107)

Also, "You worship besides Allah only idols, and you only invent falsehood. Verily, those whom you worship besides Allaah have no power to give you provision, so seek your provision from Allaah (Alone) and worship Him (Alone), and be grateful to Him. To Him (Alone) you will be brought back." (29:17)

Refutation from the Sunnah:

"If you ask in prayer ask only Allah, and if you seek help, seek it only from Allaah." [At-Tirmidhee, an-Nawawi's Forth Hadith]

"He who dies while praying to someone as rival to Allaah, the reward for such a person shall be the Fire of Hell." (Narrated by Al-Bukhaaree)

"O people of Quraish, sell your own souls. I will not be of any help to you before Allaah; O Abbaas ibn Abdul-Muttalib, I will not be of any help to you before Allaah; O Safiyah, aunt of Allaah's Messenger, I will not be of any help to you before Allaah; O Faatimah, daughter of Muhammad, ask of my wealth what you wish, I will be of no avail to you before Allaah." (Narrated by al-Bukhaaree)

During the days of the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, there was a hypocrite who used to harm the believers, some of them (the believers) said: "Come (support) with us while we appeal to Allaah's Messenger for assistance against this hypocrite." The Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wasallam, replied, "Verily, no one should seek to me for assistance. Indeed, it is Allaah Who is to be sought for assistance and help." (at-Tabaraanee)

Saying of a scholar, Ibn Rajab, rahmatullaahi `alayhi:

"Know that it is an obligation to invoke Allah Alone in Du`aa, and not His creation. Invoking entails showing humiliation, destitution, need and poverty by the one who is invoking while admitting that the one who is being invoked has power over delivering such matters as removing hardship, delivering the need, bringing about benefit and fending off harm. Admitting (and showing) humility and meekness can only be revealed to Allaah, Alone, for this is the essence of worship."

Assalaam Alaykum.

. 'During the primary stages of Sufism, Sufis were characterised by their particular attachment to zikr (remembrance of Allah) and asceticism (seclusion), as well as the beginning of innovated practices to 'aid' in the religious practices. Yet even at the early stage of Sufism, before their involvement in innovated rituals and structured orders, the scholars warned the masses of the extremity of Sufi practices. Imam Al-Shafi' had the opinion that "If a person exercised Sufism (Tasawafa) at the beginning of the day, he doesn't come at Zuhur except an idiot". Imam Malik and Ahmad bin Hanbal also shared similar ideas on this new movement which emanated from Basrah, Iraq.

Although it began as a move towards excessive Ibaadah, such practices were doomed to lead to corruption, since their basis did not come from authentic religious doctrines, but rather from exaggerated human emotions.

Sufism as an organised movement arose among pious Muslims as a reaction against the worldliness of the early Umayyad period (AD 661-750). The Sufis exploited the chaotic state of affairs that existed during the fifth and sixth centuries A.H. and invited people to follow their way, alleging that the remedy to this chaos was conformity to the guidance of their order's Sheikhs. Dar al-Majnoon was established during the reign of Khalifah Ma'moon, where he invited the scholars of the Romans and Greeks to meet with the Muslims and 'discuss' their respective positions. This provided the perfect breeding ground for the synthesis between Islam and Pagan theology, to produce the Sufism of the like of Ibn Arabi.

The Mixing Pot

With the demise of the Companions and their successors, the door became open for the distortion of Islamic Principles. The enemies of Islam had already burrowed deep into the ranks of Muslims and rapidly caused Fitnah through their spreading of forged hadith and subsequently created new sects such as the Khawaarij and Mu'tazilah.

Sufism gained its breeding ground during this period, whereby it gained its support from the Dynastic Rulers, who had deviated from Islam to the extent whereby magic was used as entertainment in their courts, even though magic is considered as Kufr in Islam. During this period, sufism developed its Shi'a flavour, indeed the roots of contemporary Sufism have been traced back to Shi'a origins.

Sufi ideology and thinking flourished during the times of the likes of Muhyiddin Ibn Arabi, Jalal Ad Din Rumi, and Imam Ghazali. Their translation of Greek philosophical works into Arabic during the third Islamic century left an indelible mark on many aspects of Sufism, resulting in Greek pantheism becoming an integral part of Sufi doctrine. Pagan practices such as Saint worshipping, the use of magic and holding veneration towards their Sheikh overtook the Orthodox practices of Islam and had little resemblance to the Islam left by our Prophet (s.a.w).

By examining the mystic doctrines of Christianity, Hinduism, Taoism and other religions, it becomes clear how closer Sufism is to these religions than to Islam.

In fact, Sufism is never characterised under "Islam" in any system of catalogue, but rather under 'Mysticism'.
