Asalaamualaikum,

I have already proposed the marriage to her and she is also ready for marriage...the only prob is tht she is divorced and has a 3yrs old girl..my intention to marry her is only bcoz she is a good and a practising muslimah..do you think she must talk to her mother about us and i must also talk to my parents? and when i saw the dream in that dream i was not having any feeling that i m praying in the wrong direction, but when i woke up and recalled the dream i felt that i was praying in the wrong direction..what does it mean..does it mean that our marriage wont work? or does it mean that we must not talk to eachother like this coz we are gair muharrams and we must now start to talk to our parents about our marriage..please suggest me what should we do is it good for us to marry or not?

Wa laikum salam, Br Mir

I think you should propose marriage for the girl because your mother's father approved of it. However, because you were praying in the wrong direction in the Mosque, it means that either you are going astray in some way [making some mistake], or your motives are not correct in some way [I cannot say more because I don't know why you wish to marry the girl].

::TheMerciful:: Description of Paradise

- ZahRaa ..

- 4 Oct 2008

Ibn al-Qayyim's beautiful description of Paradise from 'Haadi al-Arwaah'

from the amazing and beautiful book Haadi al-Arwaah ilaa Bilaad il-Afraah by Ibn al-Qayyim, pg. 193

Ibn al-Qayyim said, in regards to the description of the Paradise and the delights that it contains:

"And if you ask about its ground and its soil, then it is of musk and saffron.

And if you ask about its roof, then it is the Throne of the Most Merciful.

And if you ask about its rocks, then they are pearls and jewels.

And if you ask about its buildings, then they are made of bricks of gold and silver.

And if you ask about its trees, then it does not contain a single tree except that its trunk is made of gold and silver.

And if you ask about its fruits, then they are softer than butter and sweeter than honey.

And if you ask about its leaves, then they are softer than the softest cloth.

And if you ask about its rivers, then there are rivers of milk whose taste does not change, and rivers of wine that is delicious to those who drink it, and rivers of honey that is pure, and rivers of water that is fresh.

And if you ask about their food, then it is fruits from whatever they will choose, and the meat of whatever birds they desire.

And if you ask about their drink, then it is Tasneem, ginger, and Kaafoor.

And if you ask about their drinking cups, then they are crystal-clear and made of gold and silver.

And if you ask about its shade, then a fast rider would ride in the shade of one of its trees for a hundred years and not escape it.

And if you ask about its vastness, then the lowest of its people would have within his kingdom and walls and palaces and gardens the distance that would be travelled in a thousand years.

And if you ask about its tents and encampments, then one tent is like a concealed pearl that is sixty miles long.

And if you ask about its towers, then they are rooms above rooms in buildings that have rivers running underneath them.

And if you ask about how far it reaches into the sky, then look at the shining star that is visible, as well as those that are far in the heavens that the eyesight cannot possibly reach.

And if you ask about the clothing of its inhabitants, then they are of silk and gold.

And if you ask about its beds, then its blankets are of the finest silk laid out in the highest of its levels.

And if you ask about the faces of its inhabitants and their beauty, then they are like the image of the Moon.

And if you ask about their age, then they are young ones of 33 years in the image of Adam, the father of humanity.

And if you ask about what they will be hearing, then it is the singing of their wives from among the Hoor al-'Ayn, and better than that are the voices of the Angels and the Prophets, and better than that is the Speech of the Lord of the Worlds.

And if you ask about their servants, then they are young boys of everlasting youth who resemble scattered pearls.

And if you ask about their brides and wives, then they are young and full-breasted and have had the liquid of youth flow through their limbs; the Sun runs along the beauty of her face if she shows it, light shines from between her teeth if she smiles; if you meet her love, then say whatever you want regarding the joining of two lights; he sees his face in the roundness of her cheek as if he is looking into a polished mirror, and he sees the brightness from behind her muscles and bones; if she were to be unleashed upon the World, she would fill what is between the Heavens and the Earth with a beautiful wind, and the mouths of the creation would glorify, praise, and exclaim greatness, and everything between the East and the West would be adorned for her, and every eye would be shut from everything but her, and the light of the Sun would be outshone just as the light of the Sun outshines the light of the stars, and everyone on the face of the Earth would believe in the Ever-Living, the One who Sustains and Protects all that exists.

And the covering on her head is better than the World and all that is in it, and she does not increase with age except in beauty; free from an umbilical cord, childbirth and menses, and pure of mucous, saliva, urine and other filthy things; her youth never fades, her clothing is never worn out, no garment can be created that matches her beauty, and no one who is with her can ever become bored; her attention is restricted to her husband, so she desires none but him, just as his attention is restricted to her so she is the sole object of his desire, and he is with her in utmost safety and security, as none has touched her before of either humans or Jinn.

And if you ask about the Day of Increase (in reward) and the visit of the all-Mighty, all-Wise, and the sight of His Face - free from any resemblance or likeness to anything - as you see the Sun in the middle of the day and the full Moon on a cloudless night, then listen on the day that the caller will call: 'O People of Paradise! Your Lord - Blessed and Exalted - requests you to visit Him, so come to visit Him!' So they will say: 'We hear and obey!'

Until, when they finally reach the wide valley where they will all meet - and none of them will turn down the request of the caller - the Lord - Blessed and Exalted - will order His Chair to be brought there. Then, pulpits of light will emerge, as well as pulpits of pearls, gemstone, gold, and silver. The lowest of them in rank will sit on sheets of musk, and will not see what those who are on the chairs above them are given. When they are comfortable where they are sitting and are secure in their places, and the caller calls: 'O People of Paradise! You have an appointment with Allaah in which He wishes to reward you!' So they will say: 'And what is that reward? Has He not already made our faces bright, made our scales heavy, entered us into Paradise, and pushed us away from the Fire?'

And when they are like that, all of a sudden a light shines that encompasses all of Paradise. So, they raise their heads, and, behold: the Compeller - Exalted is He, and Holy are His Names - has come to them from above them and majestified them and said: 'O People of Paradise! Peace be upon you!' So, this greeting will not be responded to with anything better than: 'O Allaah! You are Peace, and from You is Peace! Blessed are You, O possessor of Majesty and Honor!' So the Lord - Blessed and Exalted - will laugh to them and say: 'O People of Paradise! Where are those who used to obey Me without having ever seen Me? This is the Day of Increase!'

So, they will all give the same response: 'We are pleased, so be pleased with us!' So, He will say: 'O People of Paradise! If I were not pleased with you, I would not have made you inhabitants of My Paradise! So, ask of Me!' So, they will all give the same response: 'Show us your Face so that we may look at it!' So, the Lord - Mighty and Majestic - will remove his covering and will majestify them and will cover them with His Light, which, if Allaah - the Exalted - had not Willed not to burn them, would have burned them.

And there will not remain a single person in this gathering except that his Lord - the Exalted - will speak to him and say: 'Do you remember the day that you did this and that?' and He will remind him of some of his bad deeds in the Worldly life, so he will say: 'O Lord! Will you not forgive me?' So, He will say: 'Of course! You have not reached this position of yours (in Paradise) except by my forgiveness.'

So, how sweet is this speech to the ears, and how cooled are the righteous eyes by the glance at His Noble Face in the Afterlife...

{Some faces that Day will be shining and radiant, looking at their Lord...} (al-Qiyaamah:22-3)

[from the amazing and beautiful book Haadi al-Arwaah ilaa Bilaad il-Afraah by Ibn al-Qayyim, pg. 193]

To

Dear Dr. Umar Azam,

You are doing a wonderful JOB, Jazak-ALLAH.

I am glad to read your email, happy to see that you have put educational stuff on your website.

I beg, please read the attached book and also upload it on your website, this will make other people understand and pin-point "CRIMINALS OF ISLAM".

[Concealment of the truth is a crime according to the Quran. \[Surat 2: Ayat 42\]](#)

Please confirm your understanding and reply me.

I am quoting some lines from the attached book here:

Why do we want the faith in Sufis and Mullahs weakened? [Because most of the Mullahs (Ahbar) and Sufis (Ruhban) devour the wealth of mankind wrongfully and impede them from the Way of Allah. See Quran 9:34]

Q: Why don't our clergy open their eyes?

A: Their education in the Madrasah and in their environment disallows independent thinking. So, their minds become refractory to any rational ideas. Blind following is the order of the day among the Muslim masses. Any threat to the aura of sanctity around the dead Mullahs and Sufis is taken as a threat to their own emotional cocoon of safety in their wrong non-Quranic beliefs.

Q: Isn't the Sunnah important?

A: Sunnah, yes. Insults, no! Remember that the Sunnah of all sects differs from each other. Perhaps for that reason, Hazrat Ayesha had to affirm that the character of the Prophet (S) was nothing but the Quran. Sunnah must not be confused with the Arab culture of 14 hundred years ago. The true, authentic Sunnah of the Prophet is his remarkable disposition and actions, enshrined in the Quran in detail. Still, we should not hesitate to accept the Prophetic traditions and sayings that agree with the Criterion of the Quran.

Hakeem Sa'dat Hasan Qarshi: We need to remember that concealing the truth is a crime according to the Quran. Let us communicate the facts as they are and leave the results up to God. Let our enlightened Muslim brothers and sisters reach their own conclusions. According to Divine Laws, the truth must prevail.

It is our moral duty to let our brothers and sisters know what is going on. Don't they have the right to know what we have observed and learned? I wonder why the previous generations kept silent seeing what was going around!

Do not read the Quran WITH understanding lest you go astray. (Mullah Ashraf Ali Thanwi, Fazaael-e-A'maal pg 216)

Attention: The Prophet (S) had commanded, "La taktabu 'anni ghair-al-Quran; wa mun kataba 'anni ghair-al-Quran falyamhah." (Write from me nothing but the Quran and if anyone has written, then he must erase it.) - Saheeh Muslim, Vol 1 pg 211 Hadith number 594, Printer Maktaba Adnan, Beirut 1967.

IMAM IBN KATHIR'S CONFESSION: "Had Ibn Jareer Tabari not recorded the strange reports, I would never have done so." Tafseer Ibn Katheer, Khilaafat-e-Mu'awiya-o-Yazeed, Mahmood Ahmed Abbasi.

The stool and urine of the Prophet (S) has been used as food and drink. People have been cured by consuming these. (Mullah Tahirul Qadri, supposedly a modernized reformist Mullah of today, Islam Ya Maslak Parasti pg 130)

A Persian verse of Mullah Jalaluddin Rumi translates: I have grown my mind with the essence of the Quran and thrown away the bones for you dogs. (Matnawi Mullah Rumi). Can we think of a greater arrogance and contempt?

The greatest error is our method of evaluating traditions and Ahadith. Setting the Word of Allah aside, we fall for the impossible personal scrutiny of the narrators of history and Hadith. The efforts of our scholars are focused on trying to prove the reliability of the narrators. Every sect of Muslims has its own choice of narrators. This chaos must end to establish unity among Muslims. For an instant solution, let the Quran be the sole judge of Ahadith and tradition.

I request here, please read the whole book again and again, please read it for your good sake. And please distribute the book to your friends and loved ones, of course, with courage.

Dont miss the last section of the book GET EMPOWERED!

Thks very much for your time and consideration.

If you cant, then I am going to send a zip folder to all my contacts, I will convert the whole book into GIF images.

I request here again, please read the whole book, please!!

For your information, in the year 1998/99, some mullahs of Karachi sued the attached book in High Court, the court gave verdict that the book doesn't have a single fake quotation and is consists of facts.

Therefore, read the book.

Thks very much.

In the Name of Allah, the Gracious, the Merciful

Assalamu alaykum,

I am sorry to inform you that my website INVITATION TO SALVATION is off the Net. The web-hosts Namezero.com have arbitrarily and unjustly deleted all the data therefrom. It's an American company, and I find myself unable to do anything about it. I did protest to them vehemently, but it was of no use. I am also not in a position to take any legal action against them. The law applicable on the dispute is of USA, and I am in India. My readers from USA may like to advise and help me in this matter.

I have now to look for another web-host. Re-building the entire web-site is a daunting task, but I'll, inshaAllah, try it. However, it may take quite some time for the site to appear on the Net again. In the meantime, please bear with me, pray for me, continue your studies of the Qur'aan and be in touch with me on any difficulty you encounter in these studies.

May Allah bless you all!

Wassalaam,

Mohammad Shafi

Wa laikum salam, Br Shafi

I am very shocked to read of your problem. You can get free web hosting at www.freewebs.com and <http://weebly.com> See my Sites with these hosts; [details in a separate mail] to give you an idea of what your new Site could look like.

A suggestion: save files of your Site contents in your gmail account and also on CD-Rom from now on; then even if the same thing happens again, at least you have your information stored safely & can simply transfer everything onto a new server.

May Allah give you success & keep you happy! Ameen!

Dear Dr. Umar Sb,

Thanks for your reply.

Well, after reading your whole email, I have come to know that you are so scared from the after effects. The effects upon uploading the book on your website.

Don't you think that this book should be read by each and every muslim in the world, it doesn't enhance any conflict among muslims but to force all the muslims to get united under the shadow of HOLY QURAN.

It pushes us to check each and every line of history against the word of HOLY QURAN. Is this wrong in your sense??

Pls reply.

Wa laikum salam

I have now had a chance to look at “the book”. You can see for yourself that this material does not fit in with the attachments on my Site, <http://dr-umar-azam.weebly.com>

1. My Sites are “mainstream Islamic”.

2. They are positive in mood.

3. They are educational in the formal sense.

The material you are promoting is:

1. Extreme.

2. Controversial.

3. Liable to offend.

4. Liable to cause further divisions in the Ummah.

5. Fabricated in parts.

For these reasons, I feel there is no place for it on any of my Sites. But feel free to submit other material in the future which I will consider on its own merit.

W salam,

Thks very much for your reply.

You will need Adobe Acrobat Reader to open the attachment.

<http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html>

If you cant, then I am going to send a zip folder to all my contacts, I will convert the whole book into GIF images.

I request here again, please read the whole book, please!!

For your information, in the year 1998/99, some mullahs of Karachi sued the attached book in High Court, the court gave verdict that the book doesn't have a single fake quotation and is consists of facts.

Therefore, read the book.

Thks very much.

[MasjidNabwi] Story of Prophet LutLot (pbuh)

Story of Prophet Lut (pbuh)

Prophet Abraham (PBUH) left Egypt accompanied by his nephew Lut (PBUH), who then went to the city of Sodom (Sadum), which was on the western shore of the Dead Sea.

This city was filled with evil. Its residents waylaid, robbed and killed travelers. Another common evil among them was that men had sex with men instead of with women. This unnatural act later became known as sodomy (after the city of Sodom). It was practiced openly and unashamedly.

It was at the height of these crimes and sins that Allah revealed to Prophet Lut (PBUH) that he should summon the people to give up their indecent behavior, but they were so deeply sunk in their immoral habits that they were deaf to Lot's preaching. Swamped in their unnatural desires, they refused to listen, even when Lot warned them of Allah's punishment. Instead, they threatened to drive him out of the city if he kept on preaching.

Allah the Almighty revealed The people of Lot (those dwelt in the towns of Sodom in Palestine) belied the Messengers when their brother Lot said to them Will you not fear Allah and obey Him Verily! I am a trustworthy Messenger to you. SO fear Allah, keep your duty to Him, and obey me. No reward do I ask of you for it (my Message of Islamic Monotheism) my reward is only from the Lord of the Alamin (mankind, jinn and all that exists). Go you in unto the males of the Alamin (mankind), and leave those whom Allah has created for you to be your wives Nay, you are a trespassing people!

They said If you cease not, O Lot! Verily, you will be one of those who are driven out!

HE said I am indeed, of those who disapprove with severe anger and fury your (this evil) action (of sodomy). My Lord! Save me and my family from what they do.

SO We saved him and his family, all except an old woman (this wife) among those who remained behind. (Ch 26:160-171 Quran)

The doings of Lot's people saddened his heart. Their unwholesome reputation spread throughout the land, while he struggled against them. As the years passed, he persisted in his mission but to no avail. No one responded to his call and believed except for the members of his family, and even in his household, not all the members believed. Lot's wife, like Noah's wife, a disbeliever.

Allah the Almighty declared Allah set forth an example for those who disbelieve, the wife of Noah and the wife of Lot. They were under two of Our righteous slaves, but they both betrayed their (husbands, by rejecting their doctrines) so they (Noah & Lut) benefited them (their respective wives) not, against Allah, and it was said Enter the Fire along with those who enter! (Ch 66:10 Quran)

If home is the place of comfort and rest, then Lut found none, for he was tormented both inside and outside his home. His life was continuous torture and he suffered greatly, but he remained patient and steadfast with his people. The years rolled by, and still not one believed in him. Instead, they belittled his message and mockingly challenged him Bring Allah's Torment upon us if you are one of the truthful! (Ch 29:29 Quran).

Overwhelmed with despair, Lot prayed to Allah to grant him victory and destroy the corrupt. Therefore, the angels left Abraham (pbuh) and headed for Sodom the town of Lut (pbuh). They reached the walls of the town in the afternoon. The first person who caught sight of them was Lot's daughter, who was sitting beside the river, filling her jug with water. When she lifted her face and saw them, she was stunned that there could be men of such magnificent beauty on earth.

One of the tree men (angels) asked her O maiden, is there a place to rest

Remembering the character of her people she replied, Stay here and do not enter until I inform my father and return. Leaving her jug by the river, she swiftly ran home.

O father! she cried. You are wanted by young men at the town gate and I have never before seen the like of their faces!

Lot felt distressed as he quickly ran to his guests. He asked them where they came from and where they were going.

They did not answer his questions. Instead they asked if he could host them. He started talking with them and impressed upon them the subject of his people's nature. Lot was filled with turmoil; he wanted to convince his guests without offending them, not to spend the night there, yet at the same time he wanted to extend to them the expected hospitality normally accorded to guests. In vain he tried to make them understand the perilous situation. At last, therefore, he requested them to wait until the night fell, for then no one would see them.

When darkness fell on the town, Lot escorted his guest to his home. No one was aware of their presence. However, as soon as Lot's wife saw them, she slipped out of the house quietly so that no one noticed her. Quickly, she ran to her people with the news and it spread to all the inhabitants like wildfire. The people rushed towards Lot quickly and excitedly. Lot was surprised by their discovery of his guests. and he wondered who could have informed them. The matter became clear, however, when he could not find his wife, anywhere, thus adding grief to his sorrow.

When Lot saw the mob approaching his house, he shut the door, but they kept on banging on it. He pleaded with them to leave the visitors alone and fear Allah's punishment. He urged them to seek sexual fulfillment with their wives, for that is what Allah had made lawful.

Lot's people waited until he had finished his short sermon, and then they roared with laughter. Blinded by passion, they broke down the door. Lot became very angry, but he stood powerless before these violent people. He was unable to prevent the abuse of his guests, but he firmly stood his ground and continued to plead with the mob.

At that terrible moment, he wished he had the power to push them away from his guests. Seeing him in a state of helplessness, and grief the guests said Do not be anxious or frightened, Lot for we are angels, and these people will not harm you.

On hearing this, the mob was terrified and fled from Lot's house, hurling threats at him as they left. The angels warned Prophet Lut (pbuh) to leave his house before sunrise, taking with him all his family except his wife.

Allah had decreed that the city of Sodom should perish. AN earthquake rocked the town. IT was as if a mighty power had lifted the entire city and flung it down in one jolt. A storm of stones rained on the city. Everyone and everything was destroyed, including Lot's wife.

Allah the Almighty recounted this story And tell them about the guests (angels) of Abraham. When they entered unto him, and said Salaaman (peace)! Abraham said Indeed! We are afraid of you.

They (the angels) said Do not be afraid! We give you glad tidings of a boy (son) possessing much knowledge and wisdom. (Abraham) said Do you give me glad tidings (of a son) when old age has overtaken me Of what then is your news They (the angels) said We give you glad tidings in truth. SO be not of the despairing.

Abraham said And who despairs of the Mercy of his Lord except those who are astray (Abraham again) said What then is the business on which you have come, O Messengers

They (the angels) said We have been sent to a people who are Mujrimeen (criminals, disbelievers, polytheists, sinners). (All) except the family of Lot. Them all we are surely going to save (from destruction) .

Except his wife, of whom We have decreed that she shall be of the those who remain behind (she will be destroyed).

Then when the Messengers (the angels) came unto the family of Lot, he said Verily! You are people unknown to me. They said Nay! we have come to you with that (torment) which they have been doubting. And we have brought to you the truth (the news of the destruction of your nation) and certainly, we tell the truth. Then travel in a part of the night with your family, and you go behind them in the rear, and let no one amongst you look back, but go on to where you are ordered.

And We made known this decree to him, that the root of those (sinners) was to be cut off in the early morning

The inhabitants of the city came rejoicing (at the news of the young men's arrival). Lot said Verily! These are my guests, so shame me not. And fear Allah and disgrace me not. They (people of the city) said Did we not forbid you to entertain (or protect) any of the Alamin (people, foreigners strangers etc) from us Lot said These (the girls of the nation) are my daughters to marry lawfully) if you must act so.

Verily, by your life (O Muhammad), in their wild intoxication they were wandering blindly. So As Saliha (torment, awful cry etc) overtook them at the time of sunrise; and We turned (the towns of Sodom in Palestine) upside down and rained down on them stones of baked clay. Surely! In this are signs for those who see (or understand or learn the lessons from the Signs of Allah). And verily! They (the cities) are right on the highroad (from Mecca to Syria, i.e. the place where the Dead Sea is now). Surely! Therein is indeed a sign for the believers. (Ch 1551-77 Quran)

Allah the Exalted also declared So we saved him and his family, all, except an old woman (his wife) among those who remained behind. Then afterward We destroyed the others. We rained on them a rain of torment. How evil was the rain of those who had been warned. Verily, in this is indeed a sign yet most of them are not believers. Verily! Your Lord, He is indeed the All Mighty, the Most Merciful. (Ch 26170-175 Quran)

The book was closed on the people of Lot (pbuh). Their towns and names have been erased from the face of the earth. Gone are they from memory. One book was closed of the books of corruption.

Lot (pbuh) proceeded towards Abraham (pbuh). HE visited him, and when he recounted the story of his people, he was surprised to learn that Abraham (pbuh) already knew. So Lut (pbuh) continued to invite people to Allah, as did Abraham (pbuh), the patient one who turned to Allah repentantly, and the two held firm to their mission.

[MasjidNabwi] Intelligence Behind Life and the Universe

"Do not the Unbelievers see that the heavens and the earth were joined together (as one unit of creation), before we clove them asunder? We made from water every living thing. Will they not then believe? And We have set on the earth mountains standing firm, lest it should shake with them, and We have made therein broad highways (between mountains) for them to pass through: that they may receive Guidance. And We have made the heavens as a canopy well guarded: yet do they turn away from the Signs which these things (point to)! It is He Who created the Night and the Day, and the sun and the moon: all (the celestial bodies) swim along, each in its rounded course.

Intelligence Behind Life and the Universe

Will IDM write the finale of evolution infatuation?

Dr.V.J.M. de Silva M.B.B.S. (Cey) D.T.P.H. (Lond)

<http://www.dailymir.ror.lk/2007/08/08/feat/01.asp>

The Big Bang – Most astronomers today believe that the universe began with a cosmic explosion, the Big Bang, which occurred throughout all space at the beginning of time, approximately 15 billion years ago. From the time of the Big Bang everything has been moving towards more order and complexity. This is against the 2nd Law of Thermodynamics, which essentially means that natural processes always tend towards disorder (entropy). We note that the universe is the ultimate display of order and everything within the universe is governed by fixed laws. How can random, accidental and directionless chance produce this? The Earth therefore had a beginning. If there was a beginning, something, (a cause), had to bring the universe into existence. The premise here is, not that everything has a cause, but that whatever begins to exist has a cause.

The Fine-tuned Universe - In the last three or four decades, scientists have been stunned to discover that the Big Bang was not just a chaotic event. From the very beginning it had to be fine-tuned to an incredible degree to make life possible. Professor Stephen Hawking of Cambridge University, has calculated that if the rate of the universe's expansion one second after the Big Bang, had been smaller by even one part in a hundred thousand million, the universe would have collapsed into a fireball. (A Brief History of Time – 1984). There are so many other constants and quantities in physics which had to be balanced to a mathematically infinitesimal degree for any life to be possible: it is indeed mind boggling! It has been said that life is balanced on a razor's edge. Some scientists today are awestruck by the numerous physical coincidences seen in the universe without which life could not have come into existence. Astronomer Dr. Hugh Ross (Creator and Cosmos - 1995) has cited 26 different characteristics about the universe that enables it to sustain life. Some of these are

- Earth has the 'just right' size for the atmosphere we need. It extends only to a distance of about 50 miles.
- If the Earth was slightly larger, its gravity would be stronger, and hydrogen, a light gas, would collect, being unable to escape the earth's gravity. Then the atmosphere would be inhospitable to life.
- If slightly smaller, life-sustaining oxygen would escape and surface water would evaporate. In either case we would be unable to live.
- If closer to the sun, we'd burn up, further away we'd freeze.
- In rotating on its axis, it completes one turn every 24 hours. By this, the sun warms the earth evenly.
- The tilt of the earth's axis ensures the seasons.
- There is only one Moon, with the 'just right' size and distance. The moon's gravity impacts the ocean currents, keeping the water from becoming stagnant.

All these force us to ask the question, did the universe come into being by chance or design? Some cosmologists are proposing that the universe has been perfectly designed for life; the laws and the constants of nature being so finely adjusted, that it could not have happened by chance. This is known as the Anthropic Principle – the universe has been brought into being especially for the existence of mankind, and cannot be regarded as a chance event. The fact that we live in a "just right" planet, in a "just right" universe, suggests "Intelligent design". The universe certainly looks like a "Happy Conspiracy".

The Origin of Life – More and more biologists, biochemists, and other researchers – not just Christians – have raised serious objections to evolutionary theory in recent years, claiming that its broad inferences are based on incomplete or false data. It has now been accepted by quite a number of scientists that neo-Darwinism has failed to explain the origin of highly complex information systems and structures of living organisms. In fact, someone has called them the 'fastest growing minority' among scientists. In support of this I will mention just one incident.

In 2001, the US Public Broadcasting System ran a seven part TV series on Evolution, and the spokespersons for this presentation asserted that "all known scientific evidence supports Darwinian Evolution, as does virtually every reputable scientist in the world." In response to this, the Discovery Institute, a 'think tank' in the US, sought the opinion of reputed scientists. Over one hundred scientists from various specialties, most with doctorates, academics from prestigious universities, responded immediately. They said they were skeptical of what was shown on the TV series, especially its impartiality. These scientists ran a two page advertisement in The Weekly Standard of October 1, 2001.

"We are sceptical of the claims for the ability of random mutation and natural selection to account for the complexity of life. Careful examination of the evidence for the Darwinian Theory should be encouraged." Since then, over 700 others, from countries other than the US as well, have signed in, agreeing with the above.

The origin of life is the Achilles heel of evolution. If Darwinists want to keep design out of the picture, they will have to provide a naturalistic explanation for the origin of life.

DNA and Life - In living systems the guidance needed to assemble everything comes from DNA. Found in every living cell, whether plant or animal, it is like a microprocessor. Hand in glove with RNA it directs the correct sequencing of the amino-acids. It does this through the biochemical instructions – that is information, encoded in the DNA. Now, where did the DNA come from? In December 2004, at a symposium sponsored by the Institute of Metaphysical Research, Professor Anthony Flew, a prominent British philosopher, author of the book Darwinian Evolution, one of the world's best known atheists stated he has come to believe in God. The reason was the apparent impossibility of providing a naturalistic theory for the origin of the DNA of the first reproducing species.

He said, "What I think the DNA material has done is to show that intelligence must have been involved in getting these extremely diverse elements together. The enormous complexity by which these results were achieved looks like the work of intelligence. "

Reasoning by Analogy - When we see written information in a book, we know there is intelligence behind it. Similarly, by analogy, if there is such information in nature itself, then we have to conclude the existence of intelligence. What is encoded in the DNA inside every cell of every living organism is simply written information. In a book written in English, a twenty-six-letter alphabet is used to form words, sentences, and paragraphs. In the DNA there is a four-letter chemical alphabet (A, G, C, and T) – adenine, guanine, cytosine and thymine, like the "0" and "1" in the binary code of computer software. They combine in various sequences and spell out in coded form the instructions for how a cell makes proteins.

Each cell in the human body is supposed to contain more information than in all thirty volumes of the Encyclopaedia Britannica. It is surely reasonable to make the inference that this isn't the random product of blind chance produced by unguided nature, but it's the unmistakable sign of Intelligent Design.

Intelligent Design (ID) – This theory is propounded by the Intelligent Design Movement (IDM), the chief exponents of which are Michael Behe, professor of biochemistry, at Lehigh University, Pa. US, (author of Darwin's Black Box : The Biochemical Challenge to Evolution, 1996) and mathematician/ philosopher William Dembski (author of The Design Inference). As a scientific theory, all ID claims is that there is empirical evidence that the key features of the universe and living things are the products of an intelligent cause, not an undirected process like natural selection. It cannot address questions about the ultimate nature of the intelligent cause. On its own, science cannot answer this question; it must leave it to religion and philosophy.

ID can be inferred in the presence of Specified Complexity and/or Irreducible Complexity. These cannot be explained by natural selection.

Specified Complexity – This is displayed by any object or event that has extremely low probability of occurring by chance and matches a discernable pattern (high specificity) . Specified Complexity is an indicator of intelligent cause. The complex information rich structures that we see in the cells of living organisms, such as the DNA, are examples of Specified Complexity.

(Consider a lottery. Someone always wins, despite the long odds. To make it specific, suppose the winner is your sister. Still, not extra-ordinary. Now, to make it less probable and more specific, suppose she wins it three times running. Now you begin to suspect something 'fishy'. Some clever person is manipulating the lottery. There is an 'Intelligent Design'.)

Irreducible Complexity – This is defined as the basic level of complexity below which a system no longer functions. It is one, comprising several unique interacting components that contribute to the basic function of the 'system', and wherein the removal of just one component renders the system no longer functional.

An example is the bacterial flagellum, a sort of motor that bacteria use to propel themselves. It is made up of about 20 different proteins. Another 20 are needed to build it. If you knock out any one of these 40 proteins, the flagellum doesn't work. The flagellum displays both specified complexity and irreducible complexity.

(An example given by Behe from every-day life is the common mouse-trap. It has five parts – the platform, the hammer which does the killing, the spring which provides the force, the holding bar and the catch. Remove any one of these and the mouse-trap won't work.)

Other examples of irreducible complexity are clotting of blood, photosynthesis, electron transport and many more. How can natural selection create such systems?

Conclusion

Advocates of ID have included not only Christians and other religious theists like Jews and Muslims, but also pantheists, Greek philosophers, and also some modern scientists who call themselves as religiously agnostic. For now, most scientists do not consider ID in a fair-minded manner, equating it with "creationism" , which it is not. This is a ploy adopted by neo-Darwinists because it is the easiest way to discredit ID. The scientific theory of ID is agnostic regarding the source of design, and has no commitment to defending any sacred text.

Surely, it is rational for people who believe in ID to challenge those who insist that we assume that a mindless nature did all the creating. We should evaluate the evidence impartially. We should not be looking for the best naturalistic explanation, but the best explanation. ID seems to be the best explanation in conformity with the available evidence. Evolutionary naturalism should be subjected to critical investigation based on evidence, rather than allowing it to rule by default as the unquestioned philosophical position to which science must by definition adhere.

Intelligent Design is not the latest Christian ploy to undermine evolutionary theory, and thereby promote Christianity. The question rather, is one of truth and fairness to determine the scientific merits of the evolutionary theory and Intelligent Design. It is crucial here to distinguish between ID as a faith commitment, and intelligent causes as a scientific inference.

May be we are at the very beginning of a paradigm shift in biology. The IDM has already caused a lot of flutter in the dove-cotes of the Darwinists! Very often, as has been seen historically, 'truths' are ignored and denied before they are recognized as self-evident! It may require long years of struggle before the hypothesis of design in biology (IDM) will be able to receive a fair hearing; but the day will come and people will wonder why a theory as shaky as neo-Darwinism was able to captivate so many minds for so long.
