Yes, few of his article as mentioned by you are arguable. Especially believing in Talisman, writing of dua in Romanised. We hope Dr Umar could address us the two things which I mentioned.

Using of talisman and writing of duas' and verses of Al Qur'ans in Romanised clearly prohibited in Islam, this is ijma' of the scholars of Islam.

Pls Dr Umar, lets know more about you and which mazhab do you belongs to ?

Assalamualaikum respected brothers and sisters.

I received this mail from a Dr. Umar Azam, inviting me to visit his website. I did so as requested but only visited the pages of 'Practical Islam'. Somehow, I feel very uncomfortable as there were no reference at all to his advises, especially the wearing of Quranic verses on oneself - instead of reading it!

Since I admit to not being a scholar in Islam, I seek your cooperation by looking into his website and ascertaining its validity. JazakAllah.

Walaikum asalaam Umar.

It was lovely to hear from you again.

Jazakallah Khairun for sending me this ebook, which you have obviously spent alot of time on!

Actually i still have my paper copy of the original!

My apologies if my comments herein are a little terse or brief but i am currently in the midst of a monster run of on-call commitments and indeed am currently emailing you from work whilst i wait for a patient!

The benefits and good of this complitation are self-explanatory. Accordingly, would you permit me to make a few "constructive criticisms"?

#1 I know how hard it is to find a workable Arab text - i struggled when i needed to find one recently, and the one you use is excellent. However, for us "non-arabs" who are used to needing the "zabaars, zehrrs, peshes etc" it is a struggle to read the arabic without them. Could they be incorporated? Otherwise i would be forced to read the transliteration rather than the Arabic and this would detract from the added benefit of your effort to help learners improve their arabic reading skills by comparing the native text with your transliteration.

#2 Might i humbly request the "Preface to the 2004 edition" is significantly curtailed? I know the efforts you have put in, anyone who reads the ebook will see the good that has been done, so maybe a sceptic reading the parts about which libraries it has gone to and how it isnt available, and certainly the references to other books of the same genre in Rolex as....self glorification and this would detract from the humble nature of the prayers.

#3 In principle i like the idea of keeping one colour for the Ahadith, one for the Arabic, one for the transliteration and another for the translation. However:

a) i dont thing there is a consistency in the colours and certainly further down more colours appear to take the place of earlier ones for the same role. Maybe this is not true and this is a consequence of my rushing through it but this is how it appears - worthy of a second look maybe?

b) this is a question of taste i know but the colours do seem a tad...bright. Would an alternative not be to have different (more sober) colours for the text [as i have done in this reply by way of example] for each of the subheadings described above [since i agree with your principle that for the reader it makes it far easier to follow and to segregate transliterations from translations from Ahadith from personal comment etc] rather than using colours to highlight black text? Maybe the Arabic can be unhighlighted Black and that doesnt really need anything else to make it stand out?

#4 Once it is all finalised, might i suggest that your ebook is in the format of a pdf document rather than a word document? My understanding is that pdf is considered the "standard" format for ebooks and adds another touch of professionalism to the work. There are a number of free software that can convert documents to pdf-format very simply. If you wish, i can source this software for you? (non-sober colour picked on purpose!)

My patient is here so must rush. I hope you haven't felt what i said as presumptuousness on my part!

Ever your student

Rizwan

[sg-islam] Prophet Muhammed in Hindu Scriptures

- Jasmine Katydid

To

- sg-islam@yahoogroups.com

Prophet Muhammed in Hindu Scriptures

The Last Kalki Autar (Messenger) that the Veda has foretold and who is waited on by Hindus is the Prophet Muhammed ibn Abdullah pbuh.

A recently published book in Hindi has raised a lot of hue and cry all over India. In the event of the author being Muslim, he would have been jailed AND a strict ban would have certainly been imposed on the printing and the publishing of the book.

The author of this important research work "Kalki Autar" i.e. "Guide and Prophet of whole universe" comes of a Bengali race and holds an important portfolio at Allahabad University. Pundit Vaid Parkash is a Brahman Hindu and a well known Sanskrit scholar and research worker.

Pundit Vaid Parkash, after a great deal of toil and hard-work, presented the work to as many as eight great Pundits who are themselves very well known in the field of research in India, and are amongst the learned religious leaders. Their Pundits, after thorough study of the book, have acknowledged this to be true and authentic research work.

Important religious books of India mention the guide and prophet by the specific name of "Kalki Autar" it denotes the great man Muhammed who was born in Makkah. Hence, all Hindus where-ever they may be, should wait no longer for any other 'kalki autar' but to embrace Islam and follow in the footsteps of the last Messenger of Allah (swt) who was sent in the world about fourteen hundred years ago with a mission from Him and after accomplishing it has long ago departed this world. As an argument to prove the authenticity of his research, Pundit Vaid Parkash quotes from the Veda, a sacred book among Hindus:

1. Veda mentions that 'kalki autar' will be the last Messenger/Prophet of Bhagwan (Allah) to guide the whole world. After quoting this reference the Pundit Parkash says that this comes true only in the case of Muhammed pbuh.

2. According to a prophecy of Hinduism, 'kalki autar' will be born in an island and that is the Arab territory which is known as 'jazeeraatul Arab'.

3. In the 'sacred' book of Hindus the father's name of 'kalki autar' is mentioned as 'Vishnu Bhagat' and his mother's name as 'somanib'. In Sanskrit, 'vishnu' stands for Allah (swt) and the literal meaning of 'bhagat' is slave.

'Vishnu Bhagat' therefore, in the Arabic language will mean Allah's slave (Abdullah). 'Somanib' in Sanskrit means peace and tranquility which in Arabic is denoted by the word 'Amina'. Whereas the last Messenger Muhammed's father and mother's names were Abdullah and Amina respectively.

4. In the big books of Hindus, it is mentioned that 'kalki autar' will live on olive and dates and he will be true to his words and honest. In this regard Pundit Parkash writes, "This is true and established only in the case of Muhammed pbuh".

5. Veda mentions that 'kalki autar' will be born in the respected and noble dynasty of his land. And this is also true as regards Muhammed as he was born in the respected tribe of Quraish who enjoyed great respect and high place in Makkah.

6. 'Kalki Autar' will be taught in the cave by Bhagwan through his own messenger. And it is very true in this matter. Muhammed was the only one person in Makkah who has taught by Allah's Messenger Gabriel in the cave of Hira.

7. It is written in the books which Hindus believe that Bhagwan will provide 'Kalki autar' with the fastest of a horse and with the help of which he will ride around the world and the seven skies/heavens. The riding on 'Buraq' and 'Meraj' by the Prophet Muhammed pbuh proves what?

8. It is also written in the Hindus' books that 'kalki autar' will be strengthened and heavily helped by Bhagwan. And we know this fact that Muhammed was aided and reinforced by Allah (swt) through His angels in the battle of Badr.

9. Hindus' books also mention that 'kalki autar' will be an expert in horse riding, arrow shooting, and swordsmanship. What Pundit Vaid Parkash comments in this regard is very important and worth attention and consideration. He writes that the age of horses, swords, and spears is long ago gone and now is the age of modern weapons like tanks, missiles, and guns, and therefore it will be unwise to wait for 'kalki autar' bearing sword and arrows or spears. In reality, the mention in our books of 'kalki autar' is clearly indicative of Muhammed who was given the heavenly book known as Al-Qur'an.

Dear Doctor Umar Azam,

Thanks for the Prayers in Islam send to me at my request.

As far as I can suggest, the types are very large and should be reduced to readable levels.

second as your Prayers are best useful to Asian community,they can read the rabic Prayers easily if the Harakat (Fatha, Kasra and Damma) are used. Your prayers will be difficult to pronounce by them without Harakat.So adding these will be very Helpful

Third Please just recheck if the Prayers given therein are as per Hadith . Iam checking on it and will inform u if u have no objection.For this reason I have not sent it to anyone known to me.

Jazak Allah for your efforts

I'm sending you 'Prayers in Islam' -which I have compiled with great effort- as an attachment. [Please scroll right to the bottom to see all the work.] You are most welcome to send it to your family and friends as an attachment with your own mail. In the meantime, please send me your comments on this work; here are a few points you could consider:

a) Is the work easy to read?

b) How can the work be useful?

c) How can it be improved?

d) How can it be promoted?
